

Two Coast Water District Reports—They Differ

By DON GRIERSON

Both the city of Pacifica and the North Coast County Water District have released reports on the "feasibility and desirability" of the city's taking over the water system, and, as expected, the conclusions reached by the two jurisdictions differ greatly.

The city report, prepared at the direction of the council and submitted to the water district board several months ago by City Manager C. W. Masonheimer, but not released to the public until last week, states flatly that "the consolidation question is clearly answered in the affirmative."

"While district-city relations have been good, it is apparent that a greater level of efficiency can be had in the fields of planning and operations with a consolidation of forces," Masonheimer's report states.

While conceding that "large-scale" does not mean better services, the manager expressed the opinion that "politically and economically, the city should be an operation that provides the most complete package of municipal services it is possible to devise."

"Simple economy can and does result from mass production. This principle is true for the provision of municipal services as it is for the production of automobiles or refrigerators," the report maintains.

"There is no valid reason to have a separate public jurisdiction to serve water in the city of Pacifica, and, therefore, there should be none. Consolidation of the city and water district is a highly desirable end."

Masonheimer recommended that the city attorney and legal counsel for the water district be directed to "pursue the dissolution of the North Coast County Water District and consolidation of the district with the city of Pacifica."

The water district's report, compiled by General Manager Harlan F. Hill and members of the board of directors, concludes that consolidation "will neither improve the quality of service nor reduce the cost of providing the service."

In fact, the district's report states that consolidation would "give rise to political considerations, and undoubtedly result in increased charges for water services."

"There are no demonstrable economies in providing water service that will be realized from consolidation. The existing service is provided on a non-profit basis, and there is strict accounting for all funds so that all applied to the sole function of providing water service. "Consolidation will transfer control of water revenues to the city council, which has many competing demands for funds."

"The present council cannot bind future council to a policy of using water revenues for water-related purposes only if consolidation is effected," the report says.

According to the district's report, the objectives of both the city and the district should be to perform their duties and services "in the most efficient manner possible at the lowest possible cost."

"The attainment of this objective by a special district of limited powers, such as a county water district, can be measured," the report states.

"Unlike a municipality with many and varying general police powers, a county water district has the primary function of providing domestic water service."

The report says the district is rendering this service "competently and efficiently," and water rates for the subscribers have been kept at a fair and competitive level and tax rates have been reduced drastically over the past ten years.

"Consideration of these problems by an independent elected board of directors, concerned solely with water, is in the best interests of the taxpayers of the city of Pacifica," the water district concludes.

Mayor Nick Gust raised the possibility of the city's taking over the water system as an additional source of revenue and "a way to provide better service" more than a year ago.

The district officials have been opposed to the proposal from the beginning.

Both the reports are in the hands of council members, and the matter is expected to be discussed at the next regular meeting.

Lilly Quits As West Bay Transit Chief

General Manager John Charles Lilly of the West Bay Rapid Transit Authority announced yesterday that he is resigning as of May 19 to take another position, which he said must remain a mystery for the time being.

Lilly said the job will be in the Bay Area and he and his family will continue to live in Belmont. The announcement should be made by his new employer some time this week, he added.

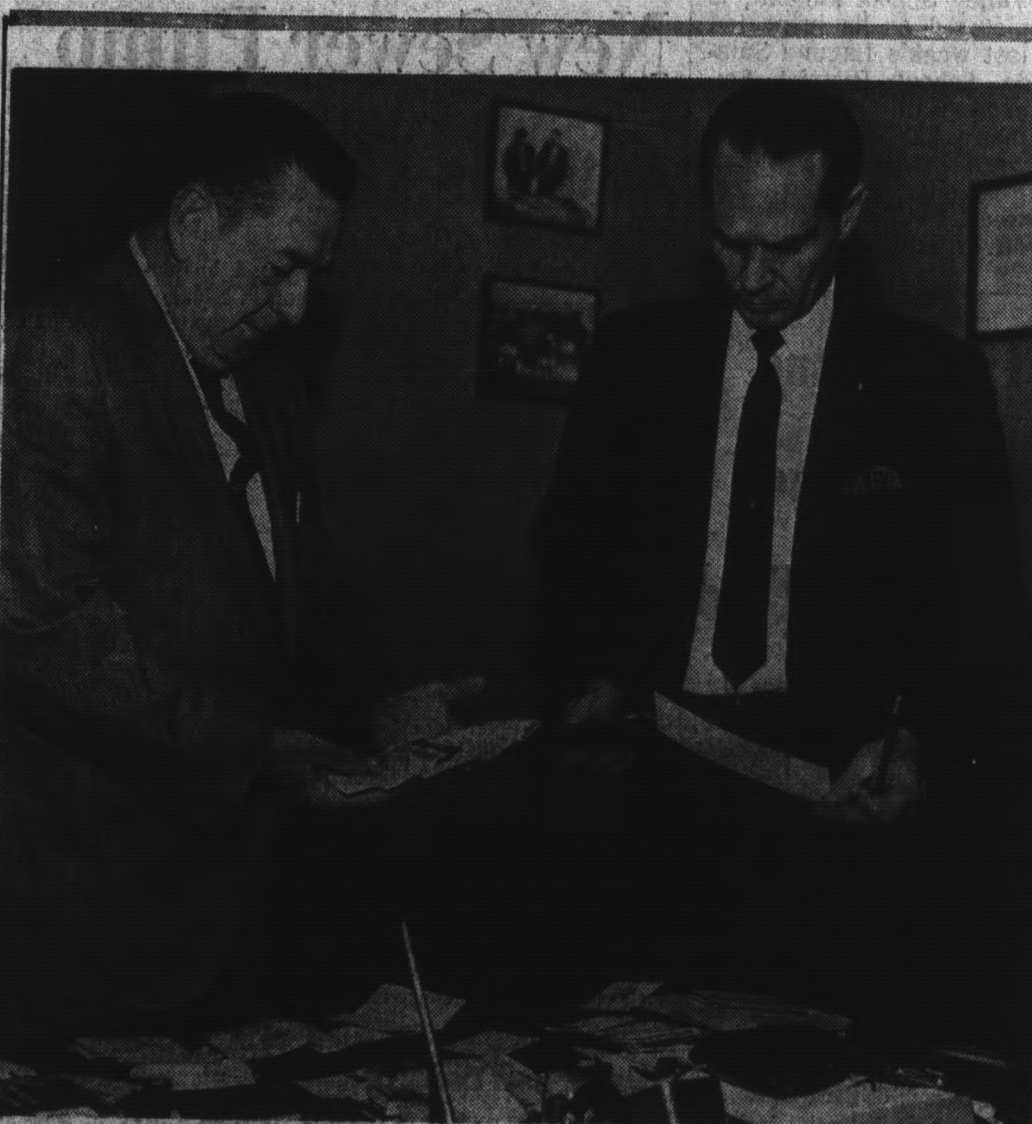

West Bay Chairman William R. Lawson said Lilly submitted his resignation at a closed personnel session of the board Monday. Members of the board asked him to defer taking the new position until after the June 10 county-wide master transit plan election. Lilly, however, said his acceptance had to be made immediately if he was to get the job.

Asked if the directors feared that Lilly's leaving might reflect badly on the election, Lawson replied that "there is no question that it might have some impact."

"The board was reluctant to see him go," the chairman said, "but there was not much we could do about it."

Lilly, however, predicted that the election, in which voters will be asked to approve a master transit plan starting with a county-wide bus system, will be successful.

"The plan has been adopted by the board," Lilly said, "and a lot of good people are interested in seeing that the right thing is done in this county. I feel that it is going to be a success."

Colma Credit Card Caper Crushed

Accord On Westborough Not Reached

South San Francisco councilmen again postponed action on several resolutions pertaining to the Westborough Boulevard Extension project Monday, to await completion of a new formal agreement being prepared by the county.

City Atty. John Noonan said the council will have to make a decision on a "wholly new formal agreement" now being prepared by the county because of changes in the contract proposed by the city.

The agreement is being rewritten to include provisions for county improvement and maintenance of the Colma Creek Channel, addition of a traffic signal and extension of the roadway beyond the point originally proposed.

Meanwhile, because of the additional projects and delays in beginning construction, the cost of the roadway has increased considerably.

Public Works Director Louis Goss said the county's latest estimates indicate the project will cost more than $1.5 million, with the bulk of the financing to come from gasoline tax funds.

City Mgr. Thomas McKenzie will present a detailed report on cost of the project at the next regular council meeting.

Art Teachers Hit Jeff El. Cutbacks

Six art teachers from Daly City's Jefferson Elementary School District have issued a statement opposing the administration's proposed reduction in the number of art teachers and consultants next year.

"Curtailling any position of the art program and eliminating the positions of highly qualified personnel who have worked hard to sustain an excellent program within the schools is not conducive to high morale nor to the continuance of teaching excellence in art," the statement says.

District Superintendent Frank Greenwood included several art teachers and consultants in a list of 21 certified staff members notified that they might not be rehired next year as part of an economy move in the district.

The teachers and consultants were given letters stating their services would not be needed next year in a letter several weeks ago.

However, Greenwood and other district officials said the teachers were given the letters of notification in order to satisfy a state legal requirement "in the event that we do have to cut the staff next year," and they will be retained if the district's financial situation permits.

Among those receiving the "letters of notification" were Mrs. Helen Cordell, the district's nationally recognized art consultant.

The consultant's position carries an annual salary of $15,952, according to Jefferson district sources.

Mrs. Cordell has supervised the art program for the past 15 years, and is a recognized expert in elementary art programs.

Daly City Plans Plaque To Honor Its War Dead

A letter from a concerned Daly City housewife has prompted the city council to initiate action on erecting a plaque in the War Memorial Building to honor those who died in WWII, the Korean Conflict and the Vietnam War.

Mrs. Celeste Guillory asked the council why the city does not have such a plaque commemorating the city's fallen military men from all three wars — instead of just World War Two.

She said the recent death of Lieutenant Bosberry in Vietnam sparked the idea and she volunteered to work with the city in preparation of the memorial, hopefully in time for Memorial Day on May 30.

The plaque for the Vietnam War "could be a temporary one with names added until the war is ended" at which time the city would erect a permanent plaque, she explained.

Daly City Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lyett and the three other council members attending Monday's study session instructed the staff to start laying the groundwork for the project.

A Major N. County Blackout

Parts of South San Francisco, Daly City and Colma were plunged into darkness late on Monday when a speeding car destroyed three utility poles on Hillside Boulevard in Colma.

The driver, Mrs. Sharon Renee Saxen, 21, 123 Edison Avenue, South San Francisco, was seriously injured in the crash, which demolished her late-model sedan.

Pacific Gas & Electric Company reported some 3,500 users were without electricity for periods ranging from 12 minutes to one hour and 37 minutes.

Highway Patrolmen Lawrence Rollin and Frederick Kern said the accident happened at 11:41 p.m. when Mrs. Saxen's southbound sedan, reportedly going in excess of 60 in a 25-mile zone, failed to make a curve just south of F Street. It struck one of the wooden utility poles, snapping it off at the base. The auto continued on for 130 feet and smashed into another pole, breaking it in two. The action of the second pole falling snapped off the top of a third pole.

Preliminary Budget A County Boost Of 24 Percent

By VIRGIL WILSON

A 24 per cent increase in county government spending requirements in 1969-70 was forecast yesterday by County Manager M. D. Tarshes.

Tarshes told the County Board of Supervisors, in submitting a proposed $91,964,307 budget, that another increase in the county tax rate will apparently be needed this year. How big, he could not say.

"Not as large, hopefully, as the increase required last year," Tarshes told the board.

The budget last year was $74,105,740, up $10 million over the previous year, and the tax rate was set at $1.68, a jump of 36 cents over 1967.

At this stage, Tarshes and his staff have sliced nearly $5 million away from the total of budget requests submitted by department heads.

"I anticipate that the board will make further reductions," the county manager told reporters. "I don't want to indicate that there is any fat in the budget, because there isn't. So in making any further reductions, the board will have to make some difficult decisions. To some extent it will be a matter of determining priorities."

Tarshes acknowledged that the projected $17.8 million increase in county spending is a "startling figure."

"I wouldn't want to underestimate the problem," he said about the increase, "but, on the other hand, we should be careful not to exaggerate the situation."

Tarshes pointed out that only about 20 per cent of the county budget is financed with local property taxes. That does not mean, he added, that 30 per cent of the increase will have to come from local taxes. An undetermined percentage of the increase will be paid with state and federal funds.

How much of a boost in the basic tax levy will be required Tarshes said, depends on estimated revenues and end of the year fund balances.

He listed these factors as causing the big 24 per cent budget increase:

—The effect of inflation on the cost of all programs, reflected in increased salary costs, higher case costs in public assistance, (Please See Page 2, Column 4)

D.C. Supports Mayors' Vote Reform Idea

The Daly City council went on record Monday as favoring the nine-point election reforms proposal for San Mateo County. The proposals had been forwarded to each city with recommendation for changing the present election system by the San Mateo County Council of Mayors.

Included in the charges was a proposal that only a 60 percent favorable vote be required for bond issue passage (instead of the present 66 2-3 per cent).

That such bond issues be placed on the ballot only during regularly scheduled elections in April, June and November; Candidates for school board, council and special district elections run in the same election instead of alternate years.

All elections should be held on Sunday. The mayors noted that such control must be imposed on a Federal basis in some instances, but if the State legislature changes elections that it maintains control over, national law might follow.

A simpler method of registration, after the initial registration, was suggested — by mail or similar methods of self-registration.

S.F. Fireman Said Critical Of Daly City

By FRANK LaPIERRE

The drowning death of a seven-year-old San Francisco boy has touched off a controversy between the Daly City and San Francisco fire departments in the wake of accusations made by an unidentified San Francisco fire official that Daly City failed to handle the incident properly.

According to Daly City the official is "off base" with his charges that Daly City did not respond to the emergency "because it was not in their territory." Here is what actually happened, Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lyett said.

Monday night at 8:16 p.m., a fire was reported in a Geneva Avenue laundromat and firemen from Daly City's Bayshore District station 3 were dispatched to the scene on the station's only pumper.

An aerial unit with one driver was left behind to respond if needed or answer the phone in case of another fire.

As battalion Chief Mel Hansen jumped into his car to respond to the fire, two young boys ran into the station and informed him that their friend was drowning in a swimming pool at nearby Geneva Terrace — some five blocks away and across the county line in San Francisco.

Hansen said he instructed the youths to return to the scene and direct San Francisco units to the victim. He then called San Francisco firemen on his car radio.

By the time San Francisco fire units arrived, about 12 minutes later, Roy S. Wiles, of 86 Argonaut Street, was dead.

An unidentified man had pulled the victim from the pool and applied artificial respiration for some time, but failed in his attempt to save the boy's life.

Daly City hoseman Frank Martorana was the first man off the truck when it returned from the laundromat fire and answered (Please See Page 2, Column 2)

Sixty-six Boy Scout patrols, Troop 275 of San Bruno earned top honors and was presented with the highest award of the Camporee, the Presidential Citation Ribbon. This patrol is led by patrol leader Scott Dobbins and is comprised of Scouts Phil Pivetti, Gary Wright, Doug D'Anna, Max Thompson and Louis Bravos.

Scoutmaster Ken Dennis commended the boys highly for the efforts and labor expended during the past weeks in perfecting their skills in readiness for this event. His praise encompassed the other patrols of Troop 275, Panther Rat, Beaver and Yukon Thunderbirds for they all received Blue Ribbons for their efforts signifying that they were among the top competitors.

The skill contest of the Camporee included wall climb, pack inspection, camp inspection, log lift, plant identification, compass course, bird and animal identification, signaling, flag handling, fire building, scavenger hunt, camp calamity and first aid.

Schools Join In Musical At South S.F.

On May 23 and 24 at 8 p.m., the Hamlets of South San Francisco High School will present the Academy-Award winning musical "Oliver," at the school auditorium.

The well-known adaptation of Charles Dickens' classic, "Oliver Twist," has stimulated much community interest, due to the fact that Fagin's group of thieves consists of boys from the various junior high and elementary schools in the district. These students are under the musical supervision of Tharpe from Parkway Junior High School.

The cast includes Joe Villa as Oliver Twist; John Giannelli as Fagin; Brian Richmond as the Artful Dodger; Bob Sans as Bill Sikes; Brenda Collopy as Nancy; Ray Garrett as Mr. Bumble; and Michele Raymond as Mrs. Corney. The assistant director is Fran Skaggs.

Wife Stabs Her Husband In the Face

A Daly City housewife, angered, police say, because she suspected her husband was involved with another woman, stabbed him in the face with a kitchen knife Thursday while the "other woman" looked on in horror.

Mrs. Laverne Pearson, 25, was arrested shortly after the stabbing incident and charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

She allegedly told police her husband, Thomas, 37, was seeing another woman and she had decided to do something about it.

The distraught housewife waited outside the woman's home and when her husband arrived on the arm of a woman shortly after 9:30 p.m., she rushed to him and stabbed him in the face with the knife, police said.

Doctors at Mary's Help Hospital closed the wound with twelve stitches and released the victim.

sued last week maintains that "art is a necessary part of education. We feel it is difficult to justify any curtailment of the art program, especially at a time when youth is faced with world pressures which demand the constructive and healthy outlet so essential to a well-rounded life."

"Art is the only subject area in which children in this district can express themselves at one time visually, creatively, and intellectually," the statement reads.

Through art, according to the teachers, children are able to learn to perceive and understand the world in which they live, work and cooperate freely and democratically with each other, develop personal satisfaction and a sense of accomplishment.

"It is through art that children discover a common denominator which is all inclusive and universal."

DALEEN SLY

Bruno Miss Wins Grad Study Grant

Daleen Sly, a senior mathematics major at Hillsdale College in Hillsdale, Mich., has been selected as a recipient of the Michigan College Fellowship from the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies, University of Michigan. The Fellowship provides a stipend of $2,400 plus tuition for two terms of graduate study. Students are not permitted to have employment during study in this program.

Miss Sly, a member of Epsilon Delta Alpha scholastic honorary, frequently has achieved academic dean's list distinction and has been an "all-A" student for the past two consecutive semesters. She is a graduate of Capuchino High School in San Bruno and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale W. Sly, 1800 Parkview Drive, San Bruno.

The Fellowship, one of 22 awarded to outstanding seniors at colleges and universities throughout the state, will enable Miss Sly to complete graduate studies in mathematics and computer sciences.

Controversy Over Drowning of Boy

ered the phone in the station's small communications room.

An, as yet, unidentified San Francisco fire lieutenant sarcastically informed Martorana that the department's action in handling the incident caused the "murder" of the boy. The remark started phones ringing between Daly City Fire Chief Herb Ritzman's office and San Francisco fire headquarters.

Daly City Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett, already in a study session with his council and staff, went into a huddle with City Manager Edward Frank and City Attorney Albert Polonsky, to determine what had happened.

"I don't care where someone's life is in danger — we'll go to their aid," an angry Lycett said. "Our fire department knows that and we have assisted them (San Francisco) many times in the past."

Although both cities have a "mutual-aid" pact for assistance in such incidents, and there is a clear cut routine for requesting such aid, this was not the case Monday night, according to both Chief Ritzman and Mayor Lycett.

"Our truck was on a call and we simply did not have another unit with a resuscitator in the area. It was faster for the San Francisco department to respond to the emergency," Chief Ritzman said.

The chief said both departments had shared "the best of relations" over the years and he scheduled a talk later Monday with San Francisco Chief William Murray on the matter.

Chief Ritzman agreed with Mayor Lycett that "boundary lines" are not barriers when a human life is in danger.

"We just did not know what was involved in our own fire, perhaps the loss of life, at the time the San Francisco emergency was reported," Lycett said.

increased medical care costs, and a rapid advance in retirement and social security expenses.

Continuing need for higher expenditures for law enforcement, public protection, and courts and court-related activities.

Significant growth in public assistance caseloads.

Statutory changes, notably in financing and administration of mental health.

Continuing requirements for capital improvements, including land acquisition, and the cumulative financing requirements for projects that have been completed or are under construction.

Tarshes said these factors are reflected in these gross appropriation increases: law enforcement and public protection, up $1.6 million; courts and probation, up $1.4 million; public assistance and medical care, up $6.5 million; mental health programs, up $2.3 million; salary increases and other contingencies, up $450,000; employee retirement, social security and group insurance, up $683,000; and capital improvements and roads, up $3.2 million.

"Many of the increases are mandatory," Tarshes told the board. "Others appear to be essential to maintain adequate levels of service."

Approximately 5 cents more on the tax rate will be needed to offset the loss of revenue caused by elimination of the household personal property tax. The levy was voted out by the state electorate last year in approving ballot Proposition 1A.

lawsuit, according to the city attorney.

The Callan firm has lived up to all terms of the agreement except a stipulation calling for completion of grading at the last remaining unimproved park site by a deadline last fall.

"There has been a delay of approximately two months in performance on this site," Noonan said, "and technically, this is a breach of the contract."

However, he said inclement weather and the necessity of removing 40,000 tons of fill from the site contributed to the delay and the developers have "acted in good faith."

Homeowners in the area also posed questions about ultimate development of the park sites Monday, and asked when they would be available for use.

According to city officials, the city is bound to landscape the parks within five years of the date of final completion of the planned community.

Though this deadline is years away, the city has already contracted for landscape plan, and financing for the park improvements has been set aside, according to Mayor Frank Bertucci.

New Sewer Pump Cost Is Doubled

A contract for installation of a new sewer pump in South San Francisco's industrial section was approved by the council Monday, even though the low bid price was nearly double the amount of the city's preliminary estimate.

The contract for "modification of pump station Number Eight" was awarded to the L. C. Smith Co. The firm's bid of $21,030 was the lowest of two bids received on the project.

The city's preliminary estimate, based upon information obtained from a bid contractor, was $12,210. The 1968-69 budget contained an estimate of $10,000.

Public Works Director Louis Goss recommended acceptance of the low bid, and that the additional funds for financing the project be transferred from the city's sewer contingency fund.

Goss said the construction proposed by the bidder would result in a long-term savings for the city, though the initial cost is relatively high.

Superintendent of Sanitation John Collins also recommended acceptance of the bid.

Nine S.S.F. Girls Seek Beauty Title

The talent-oriented Miss South San Francisco Pageant, to be held at 8 p.m., May 24, at El Camino High School, finds nine girls preparing routines for the event.

The nine are Sandy Ragole, Julie Zylkr, Janet Lockwood, Cindy Christenson, Denise Liebert, Martha Lepe, Christy Harris, Marcia Muscio and Donna Pierce.

The girls have been working very hard on their routines for the event under the able direction of Glen Shipley, choreographer-director who is associated with the School of Dance and has had 20 year's experience with Paramount Studio.

Talent displayed by the contestants will be varied and includes a dramatic reading, flamenco dance, and dress-designing to mention a few.

Two past Miss South San Francisco's, Ramona Skola and Barbara Sams, will be helping the girls also prepare for the show.

On Thursday, at 7:30 p.m., at Oliver's Restaurant, a combination sponsors' and parent-night get-acquainted dinner will be held.

Informal modeling by the girls will also take place on Saturday, May 10, in J. C. Penney's store window on Grand Avenue at noon.

Eight-Block Chase Ends In Arrest

Firdie Earl White, 22, San Francisco, was arrested by Daly City police Friday and charged with reckless driving.

Police said the suspect ran several stop signs and a red light, and failed to heed police sirens.

The suspect was chased by officer Russell Cunningham for eight blocks at breakneck speeds before he could be stopped on Acton Street near the county line.

As the suspect jumped from his car and attempted to evade officer Cunningham on foot, his car rolled backwards down an incline smashing into the right side of the police car, and causing extensive damage, police said.

Magnum Taken In D.C. Break

The Broadmoor Brake & Wheel Service Company on Bryant Street in Daly City was broken into and tools, tires, auto parts and a .44-caliber magnum handgun were stolen.

Entry was made to the building by breaking through a front door, police said. No value was placed on the stolen items and the matter is still under investigation.

2 Robbers Strongarm S.S.F. Man

A pair of strongarm robbers attacked a South San Francisco man on Airport Boulevard last night, striking him in the face after removing his wallet and cigarette lighter.

Police said Ralph Phippin, of 100 Gardener Street, was accosted by two young Negro men about midnight in the 700 block of Airport.

Phippin was walking alone on the westerly side of the street, police said, when he heard footsteps behind him.

As he turned, the two men grabbed his arms, and one of them then removed the wallet which contained about $85 and a cigarette lighter.

Before departing on foot, one of the men struck Phippin in the face with his fist, officers said.

Brother Is Charged In Knife Assault

A 20-year-old San Bruno, Craig Malone was charged early Sunday with assaulting his older brother with a hunting knife.

A San Bruno police spokesman said the suspect apparently went into the bedroom of his 22-year-old brother, Gary, at 1:30 a.m. Sunday.

A verbal dispute followed, the pair wrestled and Gary suffered superficial wounds on the upper torso, police said, but none required medical attention.

Both live at the family home at 2370 Toyon Way.

Craig Malone was booked on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Bulldog Is Taken In Dognaping

Robert Gardella's best friend is missing.

The "friend" is an English bulldog valued at some $500 and is only seven months old.

Gardella told Daly City police his canine buddy either was dognaped or strayed away from the family home at 329 Hillside Boulevard about 3 p.m. Friday.

The dog is a male, black and beige with a white chest.

Silver Coins Daly City Loot

A burglar hauled off 70 pounds of silver coins from the Vincent Estebanez home on Polaris Way, Daly City police report.

The coins, stored in a huge "family bank," were valued at some $1,800.

Police said the home was entered through a garage door.

Police in Daly City Arrest Nine at Alleged 'Pot Party'

Nine persons were arrested, including a 17-year-old girl, at an alleged Daly City pot party after police received an anonymous tip Saturday night.

Police arrived at the Eastwood Avenue home of Leslie M. Acker, 20, about 7:20 p.m. as two of the suspects were leaving the scene in a private car.

An officer said he smelled marijuana smoke inside the vehicle and a search was conducted. A small quantity of the drug was found on one of the men, and police decided to move in on the house.

Inside, the heavy odor of marijuana was again smelled, police said, and a room-by-room search was conducted — allegedly turning up additional marijuana cigarettes.

Arrested inside the home and charged with possession of marijuana or being in a place where marijuana is being used, were:

Michael D. Ellis, 19, 125 Coronado Street, Daly City; Colleen M. Long, 19, who told police she lived in Santa Rosa, but refused to give an address; Avenue, Daly City; Gordon M. Joan Crowhurst, 19, 791 South Gray, 19, 1183 Eighty-seventh Mayfair Avenue, Daly City; Street, Daly City; Orlando Gar-

Kenneth P. Wade, 20, 1631 cia, 19, 31 Seaview, Daly City, Sweetwood, Broadmoor; Vernon and Acker.

D.C. Plea For More Youth Jobs

Daly City Councilman Edward J. Dennis April 28 gained the unanimous support of the council in a plea for more additional summer jobs for needy youth.

"We must concentrate on getting jobs for those youth who really need them," Dennis said. He asked for a council resolution outlining the problem and how the community might help solve the crisis.

"Last year the North County Business Leadership Council had about 120 jobs lined up — we only have 50 this year and June is getting close. We need more jobs now," Dennis pointed out.

And while many of the area's larger stores have pledged assistance in getting jobs, Dennis noted more must be done to find vacancies.

The program is in conjunction with both community business leaders and the high school district, he said.

Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett directed the city attorney to immediately draft a resolution on the matter.

Oceana Trio Is Honored

Three Oceana High School students received awards for outstanding scholastic achievement in Spanish.

John Alexander, George Molina and Damaris Jimenez ranked high on the National Spanish Examination, sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese, Northern California Chapter.

The examination, administered by Richard A. Colon, is a thorough test in the target language, dealing with aural, grammar and reading comprehension.

The principal, Dr. Robert Watt and the Foreign Language Department are very proud of this achievement.

Free Bruno Chest X-Ray

Free chest X rays will be offered to the public at Ted's Shell Service on Skyline Boulevard in the Pacific Heights area of San Bruno on Friday May 9 from 2 to 6 p.m.

The service designed to give early warning of TB, lung cancer and enlarged heart, is provided by the mobile unit of the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association of San Mateo County.

Any local resident 18 years of age or older is eligible for a free checkup. No advance appointment is necessary.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT CARPET

Carpeting is one of the most important purchases you'll ever make for your home. It sets the scene for your entire decorating scheme. So when you shop for carpeting, you'll want to know as much about it as possible.

Here are some rules to help you make your carpeting shopping easier and your selections right for your home, your needs and your budget.

Medium shades are the most practical. Very dark and very light colors show the most soil. If you must have a light color, be prepared to clean it often or put it in a light traffic area.

Multicolor carpets, such as tweeds, florals, and stripes are most serviceable because they disguise soiling and footprints, and wear better than solid color carpets. Twist carpets in which the yarn has been given a permanent wave, are good for heavy traffic areas.

Decorate around your carpet if possible; but if you already have your draperies and upholstered furniture take swatches of them with you when you shop for carpeting.

Choose a carpet color you can live with comfortably. You should like the color enough so that it wears as well on your eyes as it does on your feet.

GIGANTIC VACUUM—City Engineer Art Reschke and street superintendent Dave Cafferata with the help of maintenance workers explain the operation of the new street vacuum to councilmen Tony Giamonna and Michael DeBernardi.

Slluurrrppp! It's a Giant D.C. Vacuum

What has to be one of the largest vacuum cleaners in the world went into operation yesterday in Daly City.

Costing some $27,000, the huge "Vac-All" can lift everything from piles of sand to house bricks in a single swallow.

The versatile maintenance machine will be used to suck gutters clean, wash streets, vacuum city areas that need vacuuming, and clean debris-clogged storm drains.

Street superintendent Dave Cafferata said the expensive piece of equipment will "more than pay for itself" in the months ahead.

Prior to its purchase, all facilities were laboriously cleaned by hand — time consuming and very costly.

The vacuum flush machinery and a thirteen cubic yard trash hopper are mounted on a excellent truck body which allows excellent mobility. The hopper, when full, is easily emptied by dual hydraulic hoist cylinders in the same manner as a dump truck.

Bay Pollution Hearings Set

The Subcommittee on Conservation and Natural Resources of the House Government Operations Committee, as part of its intensive investigation of the destruction of the nation's estuaries and waterways caused by pollution and excessive fill, will begin hearings on San Francisco Bay on May 15, Chairman Henry S. Reuss (D-Wisc.) said today. Congressman Paul McCloskey of San Mateo County is a member of the subcommittee.

The first hearing will focus on problems of San Francisco Bay and the delta and will be held on May 15 in Washington and resume August 21 and 22 in San Francisco.

All functions of the "Vac-All" are controlled by one operator.

"The addition of the Vac-All to the maintenance equipment of Daly City will help to insure that storm debris will be quickly and efficiently removed from the city's streets and storm drain facilities, thus reducing the danger of flooding due to clogged catch basins," city engineer Art Reschke said.

"There is grave national concern over the future of the world famous San Francisco Bay," said Reuss. "We intend to find out how federal policies against improper filling and pollution of our fast-disappearing natural waterways are being carried out."

"We have chosen the San Francisco Bay estuarine system for our initial inquiries in view of its national importance and because of the clear and present danger that population pressures will accelerate its continuing shrinkage and pollution."

Reuss said that presently federal installations are dumping over three million gallons of polluted and domestic industrial wastes into the bay every day, despite a 1966 executive order requiring that pollution be reduced to the least practicable level.

"In addition Bay Area industrial plants dump over 269 million gallons of industrial waste per day into the bay," Reuss said. "Only 31 of the 66 municipal treatment plants bordering the bay provide more than primary treatment to their sewer-

Bruno Aviation Week on May 17

Four major airport and airline facilities at San Francisco International Airport will participate in San Bruno's fourth annual "Aviation Appreciation Week," May 17 through 24.

The San Bruno Chamber of Commerce has made arrangements for open house tours for the public through the airport's FAA control tower, the Pan American World Airways flight training center, the Western Airlines newly completed transportation center, and United Airlines' huge maintenance base.

Over 400 persons toured the FAA control tower last year, taking in a radar approach demonstration and the breathtaking view of San Francisco International Airport from over 100 feet above the central terminal building.

Key feature of the Pan American flight training center tour will be demonstration on flight day.

SSF Police Ask Support Of Measure

South San Francisco police have responded in mass to a resolution adopted by the San Mateo County Council of Mayors last week calling for defeat of a new bill to reduce the retirement age for public safety employees.

Both the South San Francisco Police Association and individual members of the force have sent telegrams and night letters to Sen. Richard Dolwig urging him to support Assembly Bill 374, a measure which would reduce the retirement age of firemen and policemen with 25 years of service from 55 to 50.

The council of mayors last week urged Dolwig to kill the measure when it is heard in the Senate Committee on Governmental Efficiency, which is headed by the San Mateo County senator.

The measure, which passed the assembly last month by a vote of 42 to 19, was to be heard by Dolwig's committee this week, but he has reportedly agreed to delay a decision in the matter for at least two weeks to "allow for ample discussion."

The mayors and city managers from nine San Mateo County cities said last week the proposal, if adopted, would result in a tax increase of seven to sixteen per cent in each city.

San Bruno Councilman Maurice Hamilton said he feels the assembly's passage of the bill was an "irresponsible act, in a year when there is a groundswell for tax reduction."

Members of the South San Francisco department said they feel the mandatory bill is necessary to provide increased efficiency in police organizations. They noted that California

Highway Patrolmen and sheriff's deputies enjoy benefits similar to those proposed in the bill, and "a portion of every tax dollar we pay helps provide these benefits."

A legislative act was adopted in 1966 allowing safety employees to retire at age 50 after 20 years of service.

However this was "permissive legislation," rather than mandatory, and it is necessary for contracting agencies with the State Employees Retirement System to request amendments to their existing contracts to provide the designated benefits.

"To date, not one city in San Mateo County has provided this benefit for their safety employees under this permissive legislation," McKear said.

Convalescent Home Wins

The idea of a 53-bed convalescent home on Annie Street in the unincorporated schoolhouse homestead area near Daly City won the endorsement last week of the County Planning Commission.

The planners, however, asked the applicant, Mrs. Kathleen LaPage, and her agent, Ricco Lagomarsino, to redesign the building to make it "less imposing and dominating." Concern was expressed that the structure, if allowed to go up two stories as planned, would not be in keeping with the general residential character of the neighborhood.

Commissioner Robert McCahon said he would not object to the building if it had one less floor or if it were redesigned to make it look more like an apartment building and not so "institutional."

The commission continued the matter until May 14 and indicated that they will approve a use permit at that time if the new plans are acceptable.

When the application first came before the commission in February, the staff was instructed to make a land use study of the entire unincorporated island bounded by Junipero Serra Freeway, Broadmoor Village and the city limits of Daly

City on the north and south. The staff recommended yesterday that, because their findings and conclusions coincide with the general plan for the area adopted by Daly City, the commission adopt the Daly City plan as its guide to future development of the area.

The Daly City plan shows an anticipated satellite area of office use extending from the civic center and state motor vehicle building south into the unincorporated area. In the western portion of the island the plan visualizes that existing agricultural and single-family home uses will give way to apartment buildings.

"Perhaps the most important decision making in this area," the staff report said, "will involve the establishment of a transition between Daly City's heavy commercial and industrial land uses in the south and the combined state and city-generated neighborhood commercial and office uses to the north."

Action on the report was delayed until the May 14 meeting.

9 Firemen Win Raise

Pacific councilmen this week approved the new "firefighter-engineer" classification for firemen in the city creating 18 of the new higher paying positions.

The new job classification was created as a compromise move on the part of the city, and eased the tension in a feud between firemen and policemen over pay parity.

Under the new system, firemen qualifying for the "firefighter-engineer" positions will receive a 5 per cent salary increase, the same raise vote for policemen.

A spokesman within the fire department said about nine of the 18 positions is expected to be filled immediately, and the others as members of the department acquire the experience and educational requirements called for in the new job classification.

Today, more sophisticated young executives realize that the traditionalist of '69 is just a wee bit different from the traditionalist of '39 (hello, Daddy). Classic good taste? Always. Natural shoulders? Of course. But labels are wider. Coat longer. Vests deeper.

And quite naturally, Arthur Gordon doesn't have to be told to keep the authentic welt edges. Or the sacred lap seams.

The whole effect is a more flattering line. Clearly a suit for the young gentry. It dates. It rates. It's as proper behind a Montgomery Street desk as the wheel of a Ferrari.

Drinkers Aid Cities With Fee Return

SACRAMENTO (PCNS) San Mateo will receive $40,051 this week thanks to its drinking population.

That amount represents 90 per cent of the six month total in license and other liquor fees collected in the city. The other 10 per cent the state keeps as its share for collecting the money.

San Mateo county and its cities will receive a total rebate of more than $194,000 this week. Of this the county gets $29,961 for collections from the unincorporated areas.

Other cities and the amount they will receive include:

Atherton, $522; Belmont, $4,269; Brisbane, $2,216; Burlingame, $10,527; Colma, $414; Daly City, $14,931; Half Moon Bay, $1,951; Hillsborough, $198; Menlo Park, $3,797; Millbrae, $7,263; Pacifica, $7,727; Portola Valley, $1,366; Redwood City, $28,195; San Bruno, $6,217; San Carlos, $6,390; South San Francisco, $25,584 and Woodside, $2,737.

Pacifica Tax Hike Seen By Manager Masonheimer

Pacifica City Manager C. W. Masonheimer has recommended a small increase in the city's tax rate for the 1969-70 fiscal year in his third "hold the line" budget proposal.

In his preliminary budget presented to the council this week, Masonheimer proposed a tax rate of $2.10, compared to the present rate of $2.06.

"This is the third 'hold-the-line' budget presented during my tenure as city manager," Masonheimer states in the introduction to his proposal, "and, of course a hold-the-line budget is really a loss in levels of service because of the growth of needs."

"It is just as painful this time as it was the first, except that the future has a brighter outlook than has been the case in the past. The city is better staffed at the upper leadership level and controls and services expenditures, both of which will make for a greater reserve and a sounder budget."

"The last two budgets have contained gimmicks to keep the tax rate down. This proposed budget, however, provides for the full and sound funding of all proposed expenditures. This is made possible at the proposed tax rate by using the sewer users fee fund and the balances of the sewer connection and trunk fees fund, for bond servicing and to provide some $30,000 of sanitation maintenance and operation costs."

"This has reduced an otherwise prospective tax rate by about 26 cents," Masonheimer said.

The manager also said the city's director of personnel has prepared a new rule on overtime pay for consideration in the near future.

Pacific Heights Residents To Hear 'Dis-Annex' Talks

The "Possibility of future disannexation" from their present school districts will be discussed May 28 for members of the Pacific Heights Association in San Bruno by educators.

In announcing the meeting, the president of the Pacific Heights Association, Carolyn Livengood emphasized it was "informational" only.

The topic, she said, will be "disannex — Pros and Cons, and How To."

Among the speakers will be Edward Morgan, superintendent of the Jefferson High School District; Fred Lucas, superintendent, Laguna Salada Elementary School District; George Lawry, superintendent, San Bruno Park School District; Dr. Hugh Livingston, San Mateo Unified School District; R. A. Mitchell, county school district reorganization, and a deputy district attorney.

"What we are involved in here, is an informational-type meeting, whereby we will discuss the possibility of future disannexation from Laguna Salada to San Bruno Park School District," Mrs. Livengood explained.

"And, we are also discussing disannexation, at the high school level, from the Jefferson Union High School District into the San Mateo High School District," she said.

Though the session will be "strictly an information-type meeting," Mrs. Livengood emphasized it also will be "serious."

"I think by the list of speakers that we have engaged and who have accepted our invitation for the evening, it is a very serious meeting, and I think you will find that it is getting a very serious response from Pacific Heights and very definitely Portola Highlands."

She spoke of the possibility of "united effort" from the two San Bruno suburbs.

Both the Portola Highlands and Pacific Heights elementary schools are in Pacifica's Laguna Salada School District, with combined enrollments of 1109 pupils, most of whom live in the immediate area, Laguna Salada administrative assistant John Munt said today.

Some 225 high school age students from the area are bused into the Jefferson district's Oceana High School District in Pacifica, according to administrative aide Dr. Harold Tonini in Daly City.

2nd Assault Charged To S.F. Youth

Donald R. Driver, charged with the rape of a Daly City woman two weeks ago, was served another warrant as he stepped from Judge Charles Becker's courtroom in Daly City.

Driver was arraigned in Becker's court on Wellington Avenue Thursday on charges he raped, robbed and stabbed a young Daly City woman in the hand after she resisted his advances about two weeks ago.

The latest charges stem from an alleged similar incident in San Francisco recently in which a young woman was raped, robbed and threatened with a knife, San Francisco police charge.

Driver, 20, of 143 Tera Street, San Francisco, was arrested shortly after the Daly City incident and later identified in the San Francisco case, police said.

DONALD D. DUTIL, of San Bruno, has been promoted to assistant vice president at Crocker-Citizens National Bank's investment department in San Francisco. He had served as investment officer since 1964. A native of San Francisco, Dutil joined Crocker-Citizens in 1947 at the One Montgomery Street office in San Francisco as a bookkeeper. He later served at that office as a teller and in 1951 was named cashier in the investment department.

Cab Driver Robbed, Hit By Two Men

A driver for the South San Francisco Yellow Cab Company reported to Menlo Park police and sheriff's deputies Saturday that the two men who approached him as he was waiting for a fare in front of Nairn's Joe's at 2383 University Avenue in East Palo Alto forced him to drive to Menlo Park and robbed him of $66 after taking the key of his taxi and hitting him with a flashlight.

Strichl Christov, 27, of 577 Clarinada, Daly City, told officers he picked up a fare in South San Francisco and drove him to East Palo Alto, where the man told him to wait outside a lounge while he went in to get some money from a brother.

Christov said as he waited two men, one about 26 years old, 6 feet tall and with a full beard, and another short man, both blacks, started to get into his cab. When he said he was waiting for a fare the taller man produced a gun and got into the cab while the shorter man sat down beside him. He said they forced him to drive around, telling him to turn left or right at various intersections until they ordered him to stop in the 300 block of Pierce Road, which parallels the Bayshore Freeway. Sgt. Jesse Ricks of the Menlo Park Police Department reported. The pair ordered Christov to turn over $56 in receipts and $10 of his own money, told him to turn off the lights, slugged him over the head and fled. Christov said he fell to the seat, pretending to be unconscious.

CLARINET ACE
U.S. ARMY, VIETNAM—Army Specialist Five John C. Stauffer, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Stauffer, 1008 R St., Bakersfield, was assigned to the Headquarters and Band Support Command March 16 in Vietnam as a clarinet player.

His wife, Marie, lives at 463 Ninetieth Street, Daly City.

International Dinner Fetes Girl Scouts

An international dinner featuring entrees of Irish, Italian, Spanish and Hawaiian cuisine, highlighted South San Francisco Cadette Girl Scout Troop 679's recent court of awards banquet at Buri Buri School.

Marie Greich and Lorraine Andrews were awarded their first class pins, highest award for a cadette. Marie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Reich, 2237 Shannon Drive, and Lorraine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Andrews, 541 Keoncrest Drive. Each girl was presented with her First Class pin by her father and corsages were presented to Mmes. Greich and Andrews.

Receiving pins from troop leader Mrs. Andrews for meeting the "Challenge of Social Responsibility" were Sandy Bessire, Kathy Dubetz, Wynn Reich, Vorisia Henderson, Marina Lans, Janet Larnach, Stephanie Skoufas, Beverly Stone, and Janet Warren.

Girls given recognition for their work toward the "challenge of emergency preparedness" were Janice Campbell, Pat Campbell, Laurie Dostie, Cathy Furr, Debbie Kerrigan and Denise Mercier.

A pin for the "challenge of the girl scout promise" was awarded to Lorie Anderson. A special welcome was given a new troop member, Debbie Hensic, transferring from a San Francisco troop.

Proficiency badges in various fields were presented to Peggy Brester, Marilyn Brown, Colette Cussary, Jeanne Granger, Sheryl Heaney, Colleen Reid, Janet Stein, Marian Lans, Debbie Kerrigan, Laurie Dostie, Lorie Andrews, Sandy Bessire, Kathy Dubetz, Marie Greich, Wynn Reich, Vorisia Henderson, Beverly Stone, Denise Mercier, Sharron Hammon and Janet Warren.

Dinner was served to parents by girls of the troop, carrying out the international motif. Each of the four patrols were in costumes representing a different country, Ireland, Italy, Hawaii and Spain. Room decor, prepared by the girls, echoed the costumes and the food.

Scholarship Notices To Westmoorites

Westmoor seniors have been receiving scholarship notices from colleges and the state of California.

Twelve seniors received notification that they would receive California State scholarships, which are tuition-only grants given to California students. These scholarships are based upon academics as evidenced by scores of the College Entrance Examination Board's Scholastic Aptitude Test, as well as financial need.

Westmoor seniors so honored include: Don Blackfield, Angeles Balagot, Carl Barnes, Karen Ginsburg, Stephen Grable, Anne Hochstetler, Nina Liston, Victoria Lorber, Candy Sousa, Glenn Bjorkquist, Jeanie Olsen and Richard Zawilski.

The University of the Pacific has awarded grants-in-aid to Anne Hochstetler and Margaret Patteson, who has also received a scholarship to the University of Denver.

The University of San Francisco has granted scholarships to Angeles Balagot, Pat Guillen and Michael Brown, who received another scholarship from Notre Dame as well as grants from the Bank of America and the Savings and Loan Association as Westmoor's Most Valuable Student.

An alumni scholarship from the University of California, Berkeley as awarded to Don Blackfield, while Nina Liston received a similar grant from University of California, Davis.

Local scholarship winners have yet to be announced.

TOP UNIT AWARD
WITH U.S. COMBAT AIR FORCES, Vietnam — Sergeant Joseph R. Sakay, son of Robert S. Allen of 294 Warwick Street, Daly City, is a member of an Air Force Communications Service unit in Vietnam that has earned the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award for the fourth consecutive year.

Sergeant Sakay is a radio operator with the 1964th Communications Group at Tan Son Nhut AB, Vietnam, that was cited for outstanding proficiency in providing direction communications, navigational aids and air traffic control in the combat zone during the period from July 1967 through June 1968.

San Bruno Teacher Is Optimist Queen

Blonde, beautiful Connie Harrison, 24 years old, of Hillsborough is wearing two hats these days — and one of them is a crown.

Connie teaches kindergarten at El Crystal School, San Bruno. She loves the kids and she's excited about her work.

She's also excited about the fact that she has been chosen "Miss Golden Anniversary Queen" to reign over a series of special local events celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of Optimists International.

The coronation took place Wednesday, April 3, at a luncheon meeting of the Hillsdale Optimists, when club president Marchel Nelson officially placed the crown on her head.

How does it feel to be a beauty queen?

"I feel a little as though I'd gone through the looking glass into Wonderland," the slender blue-eyed schoolmarm confessed. And, with her fresh, young, scrubbed-clean looks, she does look much like a modern-day Alice. "This whole year has been an exciting one for me. First, there was getting my teaching appointment . . . and now being chosen 'Golden Anniversary Queen'."

Connie, who holds a master's degree in speech therapy from the University of Pacific, where she also did her undergraduate work, finds working with kindergartners "a beautiful experience . . . I'm learning from them as well as teaching."

"These children are naturally creative and spontaneous . . . they look at the world through fresh eyes," she says. Talking with her it becomes apparent that that fresh-eyed view of the world is one she shares with her students.

It was, in fact, her rare combination of beauty, intelligence and freshness that won her the crown on Golden Anniversary Queen. The Hillsdale Optimists were searching for someone "who would reflect the dignity and respect Optimist International has earned in its 50 years of service to the community."

The organization, since its founding in 1919, has been committed to helping young people through such projects as scholarship funds and boys' clubs. Its slogan, "Friend of the Boy" sums up its emphasis.

How does Connie react to being associated with that slogan . . . ? "That's just fine," she laughs. "At the moment it's strictly a 'friend' basis. I have no plans for getting engaged or married for at least another year."

Arts Guild Slates Show

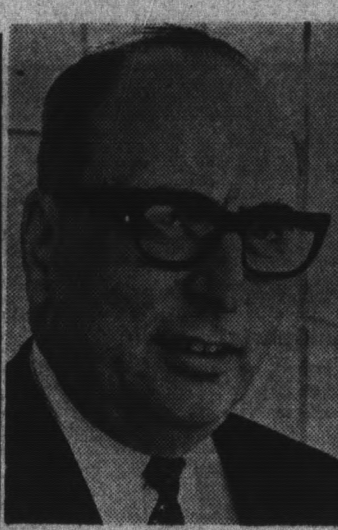

There are a few space units still available in the all-media arts show May 17-18 sponsored by the South San Francisco Arts Guild.

According to Chairman Kay Brady, scores of local artists have already entered the two-day event.

To be held in the auditorium of the West Orange Library, the art show has limited display space. Entries will be closed when all available area is assigned.

The media will include glass blowing, oils, water color and sculpture.

Entries may be made by contacting Mrs. Brady, 165 La Crosse.

BILL LAMBERT, manager of The Fashion, is the new president of the Westlake Merchants' Association. Lambert succeeds Saul Babich of Pausons.

QUEEN — Connie Harrison, 24, of Hillsborough, a kindergarten teacher in San Bruno, has been chosen by the Hillsdale Optimist Club to reign at special local events marking the club's fiftieth anniversary as "Miss Golden Anniversary Queen." The coronation was Wednesday. Connie's response was all an optimist could ask—she holds a master's degree in speech therapy. She believed, she said, in being "a friend of the boy."

Drug Arrest At Airport, Two Jailed

Two San Francisco men were arrested on narcotics charges as they left a plane at International Airport.

A quantity of narcotics was seized. Lab tests were to be made today to determine its type and value.

Booked at county jail in Redwood City were Tak Kusano, 37-year-old marine electrician, and Larry D. Shipstead, 22, a laborer.

Acting on a tip, Sheriff's Deputies Thomas O'Rourke and Joseph Franzola and three San Francisco police detectives met United Air Lines Flight 333 when it arrived from Portland at 9:10 p.m.

Franzola said he saw Kusano, as he was walking through the passageway between the plane and the pier, stuff an envelope through a narrow opening and allow it to fall to the ground. The envelope was retrieved and found to contain two plastic bags of narcotics in white powder form.

Later, the deputies said, a plastic bag of the same substance was found in Shipstead's left sock.

Drug Use Talk, Tape at 'Ben'

The Benjamin Franklin Parent-Teacher's Association will present a program dealing with the usage of drugs among the children of the community on May 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the Multi-Use Room of the school.

An open invitation is being extended to all parents of the area so they may become aware of this increasingly widespread problem.

Walter Gloistien, assistant principal of Westmoor High School, will speak to the group, describing his experiences with children in the area and their use of drugs.

Part of his presentation will be a tape of an actual interview with a student who has been a narcotics user.

Pacificans May Now Listen To Records in the Library

It is now possible for Pacificans to listen to the library's many records in the library.

The CCCC (Community Cultural Co-ordinating Committee) has presented the Pacific Library with a gift of money, used to purchase listening equipment.

Several years ago the local chapter of the AAUW donated funds for the establishing of a record collection.

The new equipment provides listening for six persons at one time, including two children in the children's room. To acquaint the public with the new equipment, the library has been having concert evenings Thursday and Friday nights.

The history of the CCCC (as it is affectionately called) dates to 1966 when a group of citizens interested in working toward a broad range of educational and cultural programs in Pacifica began to meet with "haggie" lunches at the library.

The CCCC has the sponsorship of the Park, Beach and Recreation Commission, which charged it with the function of promoting cultural programs and related educational activities throughout Pacifica. The CCCC has a variety of committees (whose members are also involved in many other organizations in Pacifica) which try to determine the needs and interest of the community. Then the CCCC works with any person or institution (frequently the College of San Mateo) to meet these needs.

The first, and highly successful venture with the College of San Mateo was a lecture-field trip series designed for the entire family during the summer of 1966 on the Natural History of the Pacifica Beaches. Since that time, CCCC has sponsored film series, lectures on evolution, ethical ambiguities of modern life (abortion, funeral practices, etc.), speed reading, art classes, a creativity series, yoga, a wine tasting fund-raising party, and numerous used-book fairs.

The CCCC is almost entirely dependent upon fund raising to underwrite its activities. The committee pays the cost of promotion for the grants it sponsors, but receives no money from the college or from the sale of tickets to these programs.

The CCCC will be holding its general annual meeting in May. A new slate of officers will be elected. Working members are urgently needed. The Board (currently operating without a chairman) invites new and old members to attend and to become actively involved.

The CCCC is by no means a "ladies tea" organization. The ranks of its workers have included perhaps as many men as women. Its members include professional and businessmen and women, as well as the familiar busy housewife.

All have in common an interest and willingness to work to help make Pacifica a more enriching place to live.

One repeatedly hears said, "I am tired of driving to San Francisco, or over the hill for educational and cultural events."

Those interested in working with CCCC, should attend the bag lunch meeting May 21, at noon at the Pacifica Library Community Room, or call Lucy Muir in Pacifica, after noon daily.

Joyce Frasu's Art Works Displayed at DC Library

Twelve paintings by Joyce Frasu, Daly City artist, will be on display in the Coral Room of the Daly City Public Library at 275 Southgate Avenue.

Mrs. Frasu is a founder and past president of the San Francisco Artists Guild and winner of many awards in the Bay Area for her oils.

She states that she started her career as an artist in her garden. The need for vases for her flowers escorted her to the nearest ceramics class; her desire to record the flower arrangements led her to an art class at an adult public night school. This was the beginning of many years of study, experimentation and development.

Joyce has been actively involved in the Bay Area art scene for over ten years. One of the originators of the San Francisco Artists Guild she served as president and secretary of the Guild and has remained as an active member, participating in the Guild's numerous in-door and out-door shows.

In addition to her participation in a great many shows throughout the Bay Area her work has been displayed in the New Image, Cincinnati and Cellini Galleries. Joyce has to her credit numerous awards.

A native San Franciscan, Joyce expresses the chameleon qualities of the city, her favorite subject matter, with a deft hand and vibrant pallet. While she usually works in oils she has been experimenting with acrylics, with very rewarding results.

While popular opinion holds Mrs. Leonard J. Pelton, 78 that artists are loners and Westline Drive, Daly City, was somewhat temperamental, not assigned last month as a heli-so with Joyce; she keeps her copter mechanic with the 2nd

"A THOUSAND CLOWNS," the final spring production of the Pacifica Spindrift Players will begin its 6-day engagement at the Oddstad Center on May 9, with Edward Roy and Mario King in the lead roles.

Arnold Turner is directing the production about a bachelor uncle and his attempts to raising his precocious nephew. Appearing in the cast with Roy and young Mario are Dave Kufner, Patti Cort, Tom Todenhurst and Gil West.

Working hard on the behind the scenes details are Joe Bogue, Judy Rogerville, Luther Spraker, Bernice Olsen, Ron Juvland, Bonnie Jespersen, Charlene Amick, Grace Ryan, Nancy Catton and Sheila Hyman.

The comedy will be presented each Friday and Saturday evening through May 24. The May 23 performance will be a benefit for the Civic Center Development program that the City of Pacifica has begun. Tickets for that night will be sold for $2.50 with no group rates or children's rates for that one performance.

Don't forget the annual Mother's Day weekend art exhibit sponsored by the Art Guild of Pacifica.

Sherri Thomas is the chairman of the 1969 edition of the show which will be making its debut in a new locale, The Fairmont Center.

Mrs. K. Jovick, Mrs. Cecilia Elliott, Mrs. George Windhurst, Mrs. Art St. Peter, Mrs. Marie Meyer, Mrs. Winsor Jesselyn, Mrs. Vin Stratton, Mrs. Don Monson and Mrs. Hal Fox have been among those faithful members of the Daly City Friends of the Library who have been pricing and sorting books for the annual Book Fair to be staged in the Westlake Mall this Saturday. This year's fair will be the fifth such fund raising staged by the Friends in as many years.

Boy Scouts from Troop 369 will help the fair get under way when they begin transporting books from the Main Library to the Mall. Aiding with the setting up of booths and the sale are Mr. and Mrs. F. Lincoln Walters, Mr. and Mrs. U. R. Jack Kendree, Mr. and Mrs. William George, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenwood.

The public will be able to browse and purchase very low-priced paperbacks, texts, novels, children's books and records.

Profits from the sale aid in the purchase of special equipment and material for the library.

Mrs. Vern Box, retiring president of the Rlordan Guild, and Father Charles Lum Kee of the Rlordan faculty, will be the honored guests during the social hour following the May 13 meeting of the guild.

Prior to the reception in Chaminade Hall, Father Lum Kee, will install the newly elected officers for 1969-70.

Mrs. Gil Restani has been selected to serve as the guild's president and Mrs. Milton Blank is to be the first vice president. Mrs. Stanley Kettell is the new second vice president; Mrs. Lorraine Renaldi, recording secretary; Mrs. Thomas Hayes, financial secretary; Mrs. Mark Borges, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Gilson is the new auditor and the new directors will be Mrs. Thomas Bocci Jr., Mrs. Frank Curry, Mrs. Fred Calomico, Mrs. Mary Cottrell, and Mrs. Gus Mazzoni.

The installation will be held in the school auditorium at 8 a.m. during the celebration of Holy Mass.

Mrs. Frank Lawson, chairman of Mary's Help Hospital Guild's Fuchsia Ball reports that the final plans have been completed for this festive rite of spring.

As in the recent past, the proceeds of the May 17 gala are marked for the further fulfillment of the guild's pledge of $150,000 for the installation of advanced hospital cardiac equipment.

According to Mrs. Mario Mangini, publicity chairman, the evening will commence with no-host cocktails at 7:30 p.m. Dinner will be served in the Gold Room of the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco, at 9 p.m., and the dancing to the music of Maurice Wolohan's Orchestra will continue until 1 a.m.

Persons wishing to attend this lovely springtime tradition are urged to call Mrs. Dante Ravetti for reservations.

Attempts to raise money for new uniforms for the Westmoor-Serramonte Band are progressing well but a good deal of money is still needed if this able student aggregation is to be smartly outfitted when they play as the district's representatives.

Anyone wishing to help is asked to speak to any member of the Band Boosters, the enthusiastic parents' group, or to a member of the band. There are ways you can help with the project!

Pat Hicks Top Westmoor Marching Band 'Salesman'

Pat Hicks is currently the top salesman in the Westmoor Marching Band, according to director Howard Loeffler. Students in the band are determined to do their share in the current fund raising drive to send the band to Disneyland on May 24.

Pat's ticket sales total nearly $100. Bob Whiteman is a close second and took over the first place spot temporarily last week. Lynn Rash, Alice Gee, and Jackie Abbley are also named in the top five.

A color television console will be given away May 16 at Skyline Shopping Center.

Ninetieth Birthday For Mrs. Haydon

Mrs. Bertha Edna Haydon celebrated her ninetieth birthday Saturday at her daughter's home in South San Francisco where she lives. Her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren honored her.

Mrs. Haydon, a native Californian was born Bertha Edna Post, the daughter of the late John C. and Frances Post. A gold miner's daughter, she remembers the old stagecoaches that traveled between Weaver-ville and Redding. The stage coaches were the only mode of transportation then.

She became a school teacher and made a career of teaching for many years throughout northern California. In 1907, while teaching school at Mad-

River in Trinity County, she met and married Frank M. Haydon, a cattle rancher.

She raised a family of 11 children and continued to teach as she could. When the family moved to Covelo in Mendocino County, she began participating in church activities and social affairs. She was still directing a choir of one of the local churches after she passed her seventieth birthday.

Since her husband died in 1962, she has made her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Langland.

Mrs. Haydon lost a son in World War II, and in his honor, the Covelo American Legion Post has been named the Mar-tin Haydon Post.

TERRA NOVA TOPICS...

By Alice Reichert

ONE OF TODAY'S biggest campus questions is:

Whatever happened to the school spirit that used to be? School spirit is supposed to be fun, including interest and participation in sports; social activities such as dances; fund-raising fun like car washes and candy sales; club activities, student government and so on, with all the opportunities which interested faculty members and active students still provide for the general student body.

These "organizers" are still around and still giving up their own time to arrange healthy, good fun for kids. But most of their spare time is wasted. At least, they draw only a few excited students to their activities. Exactly what happened to make these activities "taboos" for most teens?

ONE MAY ASSUME that there are as many extra-curricular activities or more that are less restricted or more "fun" than the old School Participation Act. Like what? Maybe a rock group, or a teen center like the Youth of Pacifica, or maybe an avid interest in surfing or motorcycling. Just maybe such factors have some teens away from school-sponsored activities.

But many teens haven't found "their thing" just yet, and there is no one interest that overtake all other activities so thoroughly. Not all the rest of them have jobs, either, that would take them further from school activities.

And even that wouldn't account for the school dances that flop. And not all of them are bums, either, that are just too lazy or too bored with life to be interested.

The hang-up with school activities is the rigid form that either exists, or appears to exist, in all things that have to do with school. Teachers and advisors are a reminder that there is a difference between being a responsible young adult and a mature, independent adult.

THE RULES are stricter on an organized activity. You must have permission slips, and insurance slips, and an agenda, and the agenda has to be followed or something will be left out, and the bus has to be back on time. And, of course, the question for any activity, is it worth the time? Is it worthwhile as a means of growing within oneself? What is its value?

There are not really any pressing activities outside of school that have caused school spirit to lag. No one does anything special. But the days are unplanned, often revealing more than a chaperoned, planned outing.

For instance, one day might find a group of teens at the tide pools at dawn, finding all the life and treasures this world can hold, and this only because someone impulsively suggested it the night before and caused the rest to get excited enough over the idea to go. Or perhaps a Saturday afternoon at the park may turn into an excursion through the Aquarium and Planetarium.

Things like this are no different from the kind of trip one might take with a school club, without the bother of permission slips and agendas. There is no pressure, no obligation, and they go because they want to go, and want to appreciate, without being expected to.

And of competitive sports? What happened to the will to win; to be not only good at something, but the best? Teens are competing just by being alive. There are unplanned baseball games, and basketball. The presence of a ball sparks a game. Who needs to be required to run and exercise all year for a six-week run of games?

It's not that school is regarded by "hep" people as a waste of time. Teens today are finding out as much on their own time, as their interest varies, as they would in school activities. They want to know what's going on and to find that for themselves, instead of being shown.

HOLLY DAWN, age 3, and Tracy Erin Andrews, age 5, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Andrews of 90 Grandview Avenue, Daly City, are pictured with "Miss Mary Ann," Channel 2's "Romper Room" schoolteacher. Tracy, a kindergarten student at Thomas Edison School is appearing on "Romper Room" through May 9, and sister Holly is to be a two-week guest next year.

Arts and Crafts Program

The Daly City Recreation Department is now planning its summer arts and crafts program for the children of Daly City.

This year's program will be two-fold in nature. A specialist will visit playgrounds each week as well as specialized classes being held in the recently acquired center at 101 Peoria.

In order to conduct these programs, a number of common household items are needed in large quantities. These items include: butter or margarine tubs, berry baskets, plastic meat trays, egg cartons, cottage cheese cartons, spoons, corks, and jar lids.

Can you lend a helping hand?

If you have any of these items and would like to donate them to the program, please drop them by your neighborhood playground any weekday between 3:30-5 p.m. or on Saturdays 10 a.m.-4 p.m. The recreation leader on each ground will receive the items.

Curtain time will be 8:30 p.m. each performance. (Post Photo)

Santo Christo Celebration In South S.F. May 10-11

The officers and members of the Santo Christo Society are working on this year's celebration which will be held on May 10-11. Queen and aides for the annual celebration will be Miss Carolyn Lucas and Antonette Harmon and Christina Medeiros.

Mass will be said at Mater Dolorosa Church after the parade which will start at 10 a.m., going up Grand Avenue, to be met at the church by the pastor.

Committees consist of Manuel Lucas, Ernie Neva, Tony Aguiar, Jashua Aires, J. Martin, Harry Costa, Mario Gagliolo, Manuel Ferrera, Manuel Araya, Manuel Johns, A. Martin, Manuel and John Castro, Tom Lund, Louis Belloni, Abraham DeLuz, Olimpio Lucas, J. Azevedo, A. Barry, L. Garrio, Manuel Souza, J. Barroto, M. Amaral, J. Benito, F. Costa, J. Azevedo, M. Alva, J. Mendoza, J. Neto, J. Macedo, F. Jackson, M. Pimental, J. Nuev, V. Manco, M. Rodriguez, T. Maderos, M. Alexandre, C. Ancho, A. Furtado, M. Parald, E. Nava, A. Pastoré, M. Couto, A. Branco, T. Lund, A. Santos, D. Cabral, A. Figuero, M. Tavares, M. Costa, R. Costa, W. Harman of San Mateo.

This celebration has been put on by the Portuguese people of South San Francisco and San Mateo since 1917. It commemorates the traditions and customs of the original 31 families who have settled in this area. One day all the Portuguese people, friends, and neighbors, gather to spend the day with each other to thank God for all favors received.

The famous free lunch "Sopapas" will be served. Tony Branco will be the chef and will be assisted by John Castro. Also at the lunch will be dignitaries in the public life of San Mateo County. Masa, which is the Portuguese sweetbread, will be sold on Sunday. "Tramouse" and linguisa will be sold also. The celebration starts with the dance on Saturday night, May 10. Music is by the famous "Pasco Brothers", who are well known throughout California since they play at all the Portuguese dances and activities.

There will be a free dance and lunch after the parade and dance, at the Santo Christo Hall on Oak Avenue. The chapel will be opened all day for anyone who wishes to see the original statue. Anyone may attend and the public is cordially invited to participate. Awards will be given to marching units on Sunday morning. All those who are interested are asked to contact the Santo Christo Society, 41 Oak Street, South San Francisco.

Red and white carnations will be used in this celebration, donated by Manuel Lucio and Pete Mazzanti. These flowers personify the "blood" of Christ and will be used in the Chapel of the Santo Christo and the Mater Dolorosa Church.

Gene Grijavalva will be the auctioneer for the "auction" which takes place at 2:30 p.m. in the Santo Christo Hall. People are welcomed to donate prizes and gifts for this event. All receipts go toward their charity project of the Society as this organization is non-profit and turns their efforts to help others. Manuel Johns and Harry Costa are in charge of donations, which the South San Francisco merchants have contributed since the institution of this celebration.

Camp Idea From YWCA For Summer

School will be out soon, summer is nearly here and so is that problem, "What is there to do?"

The San Mateo County YWCA suggests Camp Timber-tall. Registration for it is going on right now.

Camp Timber-tall is located 175 miles north of San Francisco in the redwood forests, sponsored by the YWCAs of San Francisco, Oakland, Palo Alto, Berkeley, Vallejo, and Sacramento.

The San Mateo YWCA is included with the San Francisco one in this sponsorship. Any girl — fifth grade through senior in high school — is eligible.

There will be three 15-day sessions this summer: June 23-July 7; July 11-July 25; July 28-August 11.

Details Of Book Fair Completed

Final arrangements are now being made on the fifth annual Book Fair to be held all day Saturday in the Westlake Shopping Center mall.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Daly City Library, the yearly event will get underway, with the Boy Scouts from Troop 369 helping to haul the books into the mall from the main library.

Other citizens of the community who will be setting up the booth and aiding in the sale include Mr. and Mrs. F. Lincoln Walter, Mr. and Mrs. U. R. Kendree, Mr. and Mrs. William George, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greenwood.

The public will have the opportunity to browse and purchase reasonably priced used paperbacks, text books, novels, children's volumes and records in one of the most diverse and extensive collections that the Friends have been able to gather.

Among the many volunteers who have been helping to price the books and will be manning the booth at the fair will be Mrs. K. Jovick, Mrs. Cecilia Elliott, Mrs. George Windhurst, Mrs. St. Peter, Mrs. Marie Meyer, Mrs. Winsor Josselyn, Mrs. Vin Stratton, Mrs. Don Monson, and Mrs. Hal Fox.

The Friends urge the community to take this opportunity to stock up on books for the summer months ahead.

The nominating committee of the Daly City Friends of the Library announced the following slate of officers:

Mrs. William George, president; Mrs. Frank Greenwood, vice president; Mrs. Raymond Schnapp, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Powell, recording secretary; Mrs. Monte Hill, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Thomas Jovick, director; Mrs. Vin Stratton, director; Mrs. Richard Coltrane and Mrs. Donald Monson, directors, second year.

The Friends of the Library is an auxiliary of the Daly City Library, and membership is open to all people in the community who are interested in actively supporting the library.

D.C. Pack Wins Crown

Pack 60 Blues defeated Daly City Pack 248, 19 to 13, Sunday, to become the undefeated champions of the Western Division of the West of Twin Peaks Cub Scout Softball League.

The game was the last of the scheduled 10 games. At the end of the regulation seven innings, the score was tied 13 each. Two extra innings were played before the tie was broken.

After the game, the Blue team and their families celebrated the end of a successful season by having dinner at the new Round Table Restaurant in the St. Francis Square Shopping Center.

The league championship will be played at 12:30 p.m. May 18, at the West Sunset playground in San Francisco.

Art Display At Westlake Bank Branch

Adult education art classes of Westmoor High School, under the supervision and teaching of Mrs. Vicki Lavorini on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, will display their works at the First Western Bank, Westlake, during May.

This is the third annual show for Mrs. Lavorini's students at the bank.

There will be a panel of judges, not affiliated with the classes, to select ribbon winners. On May 23, a champagne party will be held at the bank for all students and their immediate families. The awards will be presented and other prizes will be given during the evening.

BRIGHT LIGHTS
BY LLOYD JOHNSON

Enjoy Dining Out On Mother's Day, May 11th

ONE OF the most memorable days of the year is Mother's Day, when the "first lady of the home" is shown an extra amount of love — expressed with flowers, gifts, and a table reservation in her honor at the restaurant of her choice. Restaurants appearing on these Bright Lights pages have given much thought to special menus for mothers, both young and young-in-heart. To add to your day of fun and festivities, many of the restaurants and clubs are featuring lounge entertainment and big name acts. Avoid a lengthy table wait — make breakfast, brunch or dinner reservations NOW. A happy day to all mothers.

Jack London Square in Oakland is highlighted by many restaurants, but the Sea Wolf, located right along the water's edge, is a nautical experience to really brag about. Dine on seafood, fowl or red meat while taking in a fabulous window-side view of passing ships... Mary Lou Francis is "holding down the fort" at Scotty Campbell's in Redwood City while co-owners Theresa and Bud Urban tend to their many Wisconsin resort duties. This is a busy three-some... The Golden Gate Door Nobs, three musicians and a melodic girl singer, are currently featured at the Le Cabaret in Redwood City. Direct from Las Vegas, this group, which has many record companies knocking on their door, put on three shows nightly, seven days a week. Enjoy ballroom dancing on one of the Peninsula's most spacious dance floors... Why not phone 343-9705 and have Dorothy Masuda of the Fuji Sukiyaki restaurant make up an order of take-out Japanese food. If you're in doubt of what to order, tell Dorothy you'd like a "Lloyd Johnson Special." It's great for the waistline.

Vince Russo, genial host-owner of Russo's restaurant, is busy, busy, busy on the phone making wedding reception arrangements. What Bright Lights is trying to tell all you blushing brides-to-be is that when it comes to wedding parties or banquets, this San Bruno restaurateur knows his business. Let him help you arrange your party — anything from a champagne buffet to a sit-down banquet in one of four banquet rooms... The reason Margie Brandon looks so excited this week is because the current issue of Key Magazine carried her picture. Right now she's busy autographing copies which will be available at Baron's Lounge on Powell Street... While dining on delectable French cuisine in the Chez Michel dining room of the famed Thunderbolt Hotel in Millbrae, take a dance break to the sophisticated sounds of the Cava Combo; or just sit back and enjoy the resonant vocals of Jo Ann Roe... Oil paintings by two famous Bay Area artists, Josephine Robbins and Paul Tapia, have been added to the highly acclaimed art exhibit at Low Lehr's Steak House in San Francisco's Marina.

BRIGHT LIGHTS

Gary Long's 'Home Port' Still The Holiday Inn

A slip of your Bright Lighter's one-finger typing in a recent column had Gary Long entertaining at the piano at the International Inn. Now you all know that this talented artist has been "88'ing" at the South San Francisco Holiday Inn for many successful years. Sorry about the error, but even in ball games these are made. Gary appears Tuesday through Saturday at the Holiday Inn, which is his "home port," and invites your musical requests. . . . Lucien Sabella of A. Sabella's at Fisherman's Wharf reports that his new Cappuccino machine has introduced a delightful and tasty drink to a new generation of San Franciscans. The machine is capable of producing either Cappuccino or Espresso coffee. Take your choice. . . . It's a round up! Vern Coenenberg, rancher-restaurateur, invites you to "round up" the family and friends and "come 'n get it" at the Black Angus Chuck Wagon for "All you can eat." Prime roast beef, barbecued chicken and spare ribs, plus a large selection of salads and side dishes. . . .

Gary Long

ONE OF THE ORIGINALS — Ted Noga, a member of the original Eastman Trio, which made its debut many years ago, is joined by instrumentalists Bill Hauss and Bill Lower to comprise the Eastman Trio currently entertaining and playing for dancing nightly except Sunday and Monday from 9:30 p.m. in the Villa Hotel Lounge.

Carl Spann, manager of the elegant Atherton Club restaurant, is most particular about seeing that your favorite dishes are always available. A varied Continental menu is featured; serving both luncheon and dinner. . . . Reno and Julio Donati, owners of the New Southern restaurant in South San Francisco, are famous for their southern hospitality and fine southern cooking. Surprise Mom on her day by treating her to Chicken 'n' dumplings a la the New Southern. . . . Frank Torres' Beach Hotel at Montara (on Coast Highway One) specializes in authentic Peruvian dishes. You are encouraged to ask Frank or his wife, Fanny, next time you drop in, about the ingredients of their house favorites. The Arroz Con Pollo is chicken prepared Peruvian style, for two, in a manner that is unsurpassed this side of Lima. . . . Besides excellent food in the widest variety, Cafe El Portal by Golden Gate Park offers a wholesome setting for a Mother's Day brunch, lunch or dinner in San Francisco. And there's dancing, as usual, from 8 p.m. with the music of Bob Close and The Playboys.

Carl Spann

The Moonraker restaurant Lorraine and Mayor Nick Gust's atmospheric gourmet house, perched on the water's edge across from Bick's restaurant on a scenic spot in Rockaway Beach, Pacifica, has been handsomely laid out to resemble various phases of nautical life. There are steering wheels and compass candleholders on the tables, pilings, old block and tackles and other artifacts. The outstanding Continental cuisine is prepared by Arne and Anker Peterson, identical twins from Denmark. . . . Rick Lewis and Tony Montooth, new owners of the Skylark restaurant on Thirty-seventh Avenue, are fast and loose with their family style dinners. "All you can eat" is the motto here — and that's seven days a week. . . . Phil Lehr's Steakery is a popular dinner spot for many Peninsula who attend the theater or movies in San Francisco. Lehr's Steakery is downtown, close to all the theaters and the parking is terrific — no waiting for your car after the theater. . . . The best beers from all over the world are served at Tommy's Joynt in San Francisco, and soe of them are not served anywhere else. Tommy's has beers from over 75 foreign countries and the U.S.

Lorraine Gust

Dan Biagi and Rene Canabou, co-owners of Atherton's Cote D'Azur restaurant, well deserve their reputation for serving wonderful gourmet food. If you have a large group, the Wine dining room can comfortably handle up to 40 persons, and the same excellent cuisine and service prevails. . . . Performers at the Bocce Ball in North Beach are often professionals who have appeared with leading operatic groups throughout the world. Shows are presented seven nights a week from 8:45. . . . The new Kabuki Theater-Restaurant, located in San Francisco's Japanese Cultural and Trade Center, brings outstanding artists of Japan to the American stage, dazzling costumes, beautiful stage sets, and a glamorous all-girl revue. Reserved seat tickets include show and choice of menu. Bar, cocktails, and dancing. . . . Horace Stoneman, owner of the San Francisco Giants, was dining at Sil Olivas Exposition Fish Grotto the other evening when he told Angle Rosasco that the fish dishes were battling a thousand. . . . Al Malatesta will open the doors at Belmont Chuck Wagon at 12 noon on Mother's Day to accommodate the after-church crowds who will converge for an early dinner. Carved-to-order prime ribs, turkey, filet mignon and pan fried chicken head the Mother's Day menu — all at regular prices.

Dan Biagi

THE KEY TO A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS—Paul Manfredi, general manager of the Round Table Franchise Corporation, presents the "Round Table Key" to new franchise owners and operators Phil Miller and Gary Simmons. This Round Table Pizza is in Millbrae.

Knights Of The Round Table Feature 'All-A-Round Coupon' Thru May 31

Round Table Pizza, a name that well rates royal mention in the history of pizza, the following appears on the back of the Round Table Pizza menu. "Legend has it that pizza, the royal dish of Europe, was introduced to Camelot by none other than Sir Lancelot, now considered the father of the English pizza. This gourmet's delight soon became a favorite of King Arthur and his court and was heralded near and far as the official dish of The Round Table. As new knights were invested, additional varieties of pizza were created in their honor, until 140 kinds of pizza appeared at one time on the royal menu, inspiring one and all to even greater heights of virtue and valor. The magic of gourmet pizza then, as now, is a secret combination of rare herbs, spices and exotic cheeses delicately blended under extreme heat. In the days of Camelot this intense heat was provided by Montague, the cooperative, if not friendly, dragon. Now, the modern Round Table ovens efficiently provide unlimited service, eliminating the occasional uncooked pizza under construction.

United Methodist Church. Chairman of the event is Mrs. Betty Disque. Chairman of decorations is Mrs. Merle Rosemeyer and committee members are: Mrs. Del Dilbeck, Mrs. A. Gemmet and Mrs. J. Schori; Food Committee: Mrs. Irving Carthew, chairman and Mrs. Kung Chan, Mrs. J. Llapitan and Mrs. G. Pettingell; Program Committee: Mrs. Winston Manske, chairman, and Mrs. Roy Erford and Mrs. Kurt Poehleman; Publicity Chairman is Mrs. R. Bacciocco, and Cleanup Committee: Mrs. George

Westlake Concert for Westmoor Band

Westmoor High School's Stage Band, under the direction of Howard Loeffler, will appear in concert May 17, at Westlake Shopping Center. The event will mark the first time the award-winning Stage Band has appeared in the center. Time will be from 1 to 2 p.m. There will be no admission charge.

Tickets are $1.25 for adults and $1 for daughters under 12, and may be purchased from Mrs. Bacciocco.

This musical aggregation, numbering some 22 members, in national competition at University of Nevada, won high acclaim and awards over 110 other Stage Bands entered. Among the many numbers to be heard in the Westlake presentation are "Theme from The Johnny Carson Show," "Anistroy Jumps," "Days of Wine and Roses," "Exodus," "Jersey Bounce," "Little Brown Jug," "Whipped Cream," and "St. Louis Blues," to name but a few.

At present, the Band is engaged in a fund-raising drive to send it to Disneyland where it has been invited to play on the amusement park's Main Street, May 24. Special staging, sound system, and chairs to seat 300 listeners are being readied to accommodate Loeffler and his musicians at Westlake.

Boutique at Oceana High

The grand opening of "The Peppermint Trolley Boutique" will be held Thursday, May 15 at 8. The location of this new shop will be Oceana High School's own cafeteria in Pacifica. The homemaking and art departments will provide a modern setting for this exquisite shop, sponsored by the Oceana P-TA for the "Happening" girls from the clothing classes will model gay garments they have worked hard to create throughout the year. The clothing displayed will be of many varieties. They will vary in style from simple but important cotton skirts to gorgeous summer and winter coats. Along with these will be creations by student designers.

The boutique will also feature the art department. They will show and sell beautifully crafted items. Some of the art exhibited at "The Peppermint Trolley Boutique" will be colorful weavings, ceramics in many forms, plus drawings and paintings of faces, people, landscapes, and feelings expressed on paper.

CSSA Plans Re-Sale Outlet

There will be no Teen Co-Rec on tonight because of the Spring Concert. Oceana Co-Rec, will resume on May 14th, with the wild sounds of "Alphe Noel," plus an added attraction the opening of "The Room" where everyone will be able to do their own little "thing."

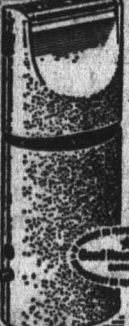

Plans are being finalized for the opening of a resale shop by the Catholic Social Service Auxiliary of San Mateo County, says Mrs. Max Messinger, president. It is planned to have a complete line of merchandise for sale including men's, women's, and children's clothing and accessories; furniture and furnishings; books and knick-knacks; jewelry and pictures; and "white elephants." Plans for the shop, located at 307 Primrose Road in Burlingame, include a ribbon-cutting and preview opening ceremony in mid-May. Presently members are bringing in saleable items, and marking and pricing of items is under the direction of Mrs. George Doherty of Hillsborough. Coordinating the pickup and delivery of donations is Mrs. Hugh Connolly, 2208 Oakdale Road in Hillsborough. Anyone wishing to donate items may contact Mrs. Connolly who will arrange for pickup in any part of the county.

WHAT'S GOING ON? The phone's been ringing off the hook about those new assessments on homes in Daly City. For the first time in most people's memory assessments on property have gone DOWN while assessments on homes have gone UP. A substantial number of homes thus affected are in the BART station neighborhood. What gives? A rather upset widower said he is rounding up other residents likewise hit with the higher assessments and together they will march down to the County Assessors' offices on July 2 (the date to appeal the new price tag).

The inspection, or whatever the officials call it when they do their thing, was made in May, 1968. It looks like many senior citizens and others on fixed incomes will at last be forced out of their homes. But who cares? Apparently not the majority of our state legislators or they wouldn't let this nonsense persist from year to year.

Daly City Mayor Bud Lyceff thinks this latest cross being shoved on the shoulders of EVERYONE (homeowners AND renters) will accentuate the ouster of senior citizens and he wants people to support his move to bury AB 80 — the rule book for assessing practices here, which he says "are not at all equitable."

The state gives the homeowner $750 one year and takes back twice that amount the next, one irate taxpayer shouted into my earpiece... oooouch!

FLASHY FLASH (BELATEDLY) — By the time you read this (if you do) the deal between developer Henry Doelger and the Occidental Oil Company will probably have been settled — one way or another. Occidental is interested. Doelger is interested. But the pricetag for a large portion of Henry's holdings is the key issue. Another mystery is WHAT exactly is the multi-millionaire developer hoping to sell? He owns more homes and apartments in Daly City (Westlake) than Aristotle Onassis has crewmen on his fleet of ships. Plus the minor fact Doelger has a 13,000-acre development under way in Princeton-by-the-Sea. Rumors have it that "Princeton" will be on the block along with some spot property around the North County.

FAIR IS FAIR — There were several staid (shaken?) persons at the Daly City Council the other p.m. when City Planner John Walker was observed standing with his hands clasped behind his back during the Pledge of Allegiance. After the meeting, Walker was asked if he had forgotten to place his hand over his heart in respect. His answer was that he had not saluted the flag, nor recited the pledge, since 1948. His explanation of the "whys" of his action had nothing to do with discrimination, rather some sort of expression of "true freedom" or something. He later denied to others that he does not recite the pledge, rather he merely fails to salute.

NOT LIKE LOSING A FRIEND — More like gaining a fulltime golfing partner. For the past three years Daly City City Mgr. Ed Frank and this columnist (stop that hissing out there) have been what one might call "friendly enemies." He says one thing, I figure it out and write something else. And now he's retiring. Ed has steamed through some mighty rough seas in the nine years, plus six months, that he's been around these parts — everything from building the new Civic Center to being the city's entry in the Petaluma (?) wrist wrestling championships.

He packs his travelworn carpetbag on the last day of June and cleans out his desk. Hopefully, he has already traveled over the roughest of life's roads and can settle back, smoke his smelly cigars and try correcting his gawdawful golf swing.

We would hope that his (three) friends will gather, before the tough old veteran shuffles out of the city, to bid him "Sayonara," or something! And hopefully they will gather in the beautiful Lake Merced Golf and Country Club before the end of May for such an event. Mind you, we're not saying THEY WILL, only if you are interested in making certain Ed leaves the city on schedule, call Councilman Tony Giamonna at 992-4500 and he'll tell you how to form a proper lynch party.

BITS AND PIECES — City Gardener August Conci corrected a recent city official who explained that some trees in Westlake Park were damaged by the recent three million gallon sewage overflow there. Not so! In fact the trees are thriving and the grass has to be cut more often. . . . Off to Japan and Points East Sunday were Olympic Club golf pro Kyle Burton and Toto Spadarella, leading a two-week tour of Japan's golf courses with a side trip (hopefully) to Vietnam to conduct a golf clinic for the troops.

Barbara Bladen's 'Marquee'

Anthony Newley's Erotica Defense

Anthony Newley is a clever, charming, witty fellow. And I suspect, something of a ribartist.

What he says to the press, what he did in his latest film, "Can Heironymus Merkin Ever Forget Mercy Humppe and Find True Happiness?" and his thoughts on his next project, "Hurrah for Dr. Bulldike," have the sincere ring of absolute put-on.

"I'm a child of my time. And I'm completely amoral. Sex on the screen is here and we should get it out of our system. It will all return to love in the end," he stated without qualm.

We were questioning his motives for the blatantly sexual activity and inferences in "Heironymus," which he defended with candor.

"IT'S AN UNASHAMED BIOGRAPHICAL EX- PLOIT, thinly disguised. I never set out to make an X film, I've made it according to my own idea of beauty and truth. Call it a trip down memory lane, an egocentric trip. I never even thought about sex, but I don't deny that I like the ladies a lot."

He's woven what he terms "a man's search for identity" around 18 musical numbers which he sings himself. He also wrote them, wrote the script, directed and produced the film and acts the lead role.

Among the many beautiful young girls with whom he frolics (they filmed it on the Isle of Malta) is his wife Joan Collins as Polyester Pontang, the only stable character in their movie. Their two children, Tara and Sacha Newley, play their two children, Thumbellina and Thaxted.

Two symbols that haunt the actor have again reappeared in the current work: the white-faced clown and the nymphet.

'Miracles' Poems

"MIRACLES" is a book of poems by children from the English speaking world — more than that, it is an index to the thinking of children in a troubled age.

Some of the poems indicate that many of the children are truly moved by the wars and the turmoil of the times. Even the simple things of nature remind them of bombs and explosions.

Note the hint of fatalism in this verse by a seven year old.

"The sea rolls by
It's like bombs exploding
And when the roll fades away
The flying sea sings."

—Roger Mortimer, New Zealand.

To a ten-year-old from the United States the sea is like the people she has met during her short life.

"The untamed sea is human
Its emotions erupt in waves
The sea sends her message of anger
As the waves roll over my head."

In spite of the turmoil that the child authors sense, they do not seek to escape from their world.

"An empty bed
No arguments
No one to come home to."

"And all is dark
In day and night
I am all alone."

—Stephie Silon, Age 10.

A girl, age eleven, writes:

"I, Carolyn Jackson, am a pure-blooded Negro in soul and mind.
My mother's from North Carolina and my father's from Florida.

I know when I go to that old wooden bed,
Somewhere on the other side of town,
there is a child being put to bed in a soft cuddly nest.

But being a Negro isn't so bad (if you know what's going on)
Down South my cousin is being beat up
And look there . . . My aunt got put in jail for drinking from a white fountain.

But here I feel better because I have more freedom."

"When I ride the train and sit next to a person of the opposite race
I feel like a crow in a robin's nest and I feel dirty.
I'm not prejudiced or anything . . .
If we go on a trip and they call me names,
I don't mind."

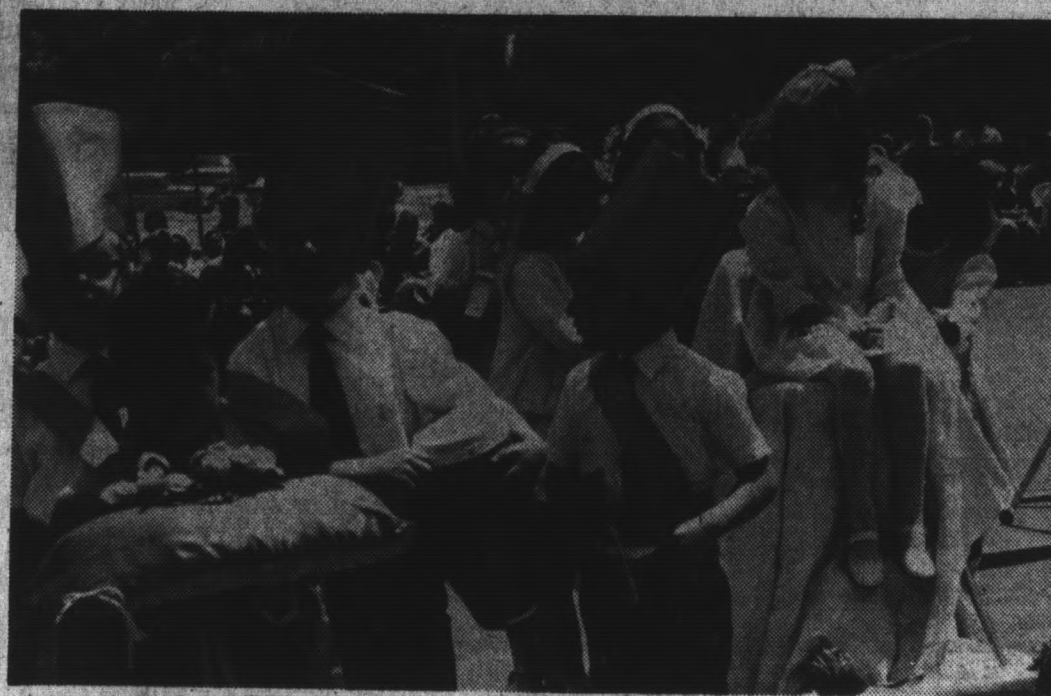

The poems in "Miracles" illustrate once again that poetry is the natural language of childhood. Poetry is a picture of life — the inner life of mind and heart, and the outer life too.

The poetry of children comes straight from the imagination and speaks of the emotions that they carry with them. In the words of Agnes Repplier poetry becomes to children the "marital strains which fire the blood, fairy music ringing in the ears. Half-told tales which set the young hearts dreaming, brave deeds, unhappy fates, sombre ballads, keen joyous lyrics and small jeweled verses where ever word shines like a polished gem."

Note the wisdom in three lines from eleven-year-old Susan Morrison.

Hours are leaves of life
And I am their gardener . . .
Each hour falls down slow."

An Unequaled Stretch Of Ocean-Hugging Route One

A Special 'See' Trip

ALONG OCEAN-HUGGING Highway One in Sonoma County there is a stretch of ten miles probably unequalled anywhere in the rest of the state. This stretch of roadway includes rocky shores, peaceful fishing villages, and sand dunes and beaches, the pounding Pacific surf and a rushing river.

From Bodega Bay to Jenner the traveler can see and enjoy all of this and take time out for a picnic or stay overnight at Sonoma Coast State Beach. Bodega Bay is about 60 miles north of San Francisco, says the California State Automobile Association, and was once part of Rancho Bodega, 35,000 acres which the Mexican General Vallejo ceded to check the expansion of Russian colonists. Now, it is a commercial and sport fishing center with more fishing boats operating out of its small harbor than out of San Francisco and its docks are full of activity when the boats come in with their catch.

Doran Park, a long narrow sandspit that curves out into Bodega Bay to form the southern barrier of Bodega Lagoon, is a place to walk the miles of sand dunes and to gaze at Bodega Head's dark granite hulk, the white fishing boats bouncing in the harbor, and the narrow, swift channel that is the only entrance to the lagoon.

A campground is near the channel and is ideal for trailers, but windy for tenters.

At the north end of town a paved road leads off to the left and about three miles to the tip of Bodega Head. The treeless promontory is often blasted by cold winds, and the hiking here is exhilarating. Bodega Head is shaped roughly like a question mark and just to the north and seaward side is Horse-shoe Cove which provides a rare panorama of curving beach, surf and sea.

The Sonoma Coast State Beach headquarters is at Salmon Creek. The beach here is over 7,000 feet long and is divided by Salmon Creek. This popular day use area is excellent for fishing, wading, beach hiking and beachcombing. Swimming along the coast is far too treacherous because of the surf.

Going farther north you won't lose sight of the ocean until you are almost at Jenner where the highway cuts inland to Bridgehaven where it crosses the Russian River.

Before you reach Bridgehaven and if you want to spend the night, there is a nice campground at Wright's Beach.

But perhaps the best area in the park is Goat Rock Beach at the mouth of the Russian river. The road to Goat Rock leads down from State Route 1. It passes through sheep-trimmed fields studded with dark rocks like the grave-stones of giants. At the end of the road is a beach of untamed splendor; the ocean pounds one side of it and the Russian River rushes past the other, its journey to the sea almost over. Off-shore huge rocks sit in the water, like afterthoughts of the continent. The dunes are strewn with grotesque chunks of driftwood and shimmering beach grasses.

Back on Highway 1, you cross the Russian River and by turning left at the other end you'll reach Jenner, clinging to its hillside. You'll find this area particularly jumping when winter steelhead are running.

If you like scenery, and the type of outdoor activity that the northern California coast offers, you'll return again and again to these ten special miles.

Vacations Free?

IF YOU are the recipient of a "free vacation" certificate be sure to read carefully all of the fine print in order to understand the many terms, limitations and qualifications contingent upon its use.

A processing fee of $14 to $15 must first be paid for this presumably "free" vacation. There may be other terms and conditions to be met before the certificate will be validated by the hotel or motel.

Some certificates require the user to be a certain age, be married, etc. What the certificate actually covers is the use of a hotel or motel room for three or four nights, with a nominal charge made by the hotel or motel in the winter season and possibly no charge in the off-season.

THE PROMOTER'S method of operation usually is to set up a booth in a retail store, shopping center, trade show or fair and invite the public to register to win a prize. Sometimes an actual vacation is awarded to one or two registrants if the retailer purchases a "grand prize" but the vast majority receive the news that they have won "second prize."

A typical promotion reads "Congratulations! You have won second prize . . .!" The "winner" must pay fees so the "vacation" is not free, nor will the certificate provide a "vacation" since it offers use of a hotel room for a brief stay and the use of the hotel's facilities only.

The usual features of a vacation, such as transportation, meals, beverages, taxes, tips, outside entertainment, telephone and other incidentals are not included.

When a promotion of this kind is tied in with a real estate developer, as a number are, certificate users must submit to promotional activities designed to sell lots. Disclosure of this sort of requirement rarely has been made in advertising or promotional literature.

OTHER CERTIFICATES do not require participation in real estate promotions but the holders are usually urged by salesmen to do so. Several certificate companies claim they give "winners" a book of "vacation dollars." They are not spendable dollars, however, but only provide small discounts on paid admissions to attractions or on the purchase of various goods and services.

IDEAS BLOSSOM Summer College

A classmate possibly could spend the summer studying in college and touring Washington, D.C., so the enriched U.S. History class at Westmoor High, Daly City, is blossoming with ideas — all designed to get some representative's expenses earned.

Teacher Alvin Wolfe's class hopes to send someone to Georgetown University.

In a program where 100 active high school students throughout the nation are selected for college work with college credit. Westmoor's candidate, if accepted would study, travel, and tour government buildings and monuments.

Selection depends on grades, extra-curricular activities and an essay written by an applicant.

The enriched class plans to pay for their candidates round-trip plane ticket if she is selected. It's members plan to have a car wash, an off-campus cake sale at some shopping center and a red licorice sale to raise the amount.

If the Westmoor candidate is not selected the money will go toward the Special Contribution Fund to feed starving people in the South.

We don't keep bankers hours

Most banks are open only while you are working. Not so at First National. If you come by as early as 9 in the morning, you'll find a cheerful bank officer there ahead of you, at a drive-in or walk-up window. And you will find him, still smiling, if you show up as late as 6 p.m. — 6 p.m. on Friday. That's a total of 52 hours a week, while most other banks are open only 28 hours.

We're dedicated to the idea of helping our customers make more money. So at First National you get the highest rate paid by any insured financial institution in the country. At current annual rate of 4%, compounded daily and held one year, you earn 5.13% on certificates or passbook time deposit open accounts. Three months' notice is required for withdrawal.

That's not all.

You'll find one of four branches near you. And we are dedicated to the idea of serving you quickly, efficiently, and helpfully. Come in and see. You'll be glad you did.

Student Awards Gathering Set

The annual Student Awards Dinner sponsored by the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce will be held Wednesday evening, May 28 at International Joe's at 7:30.

Four students from Jefferson and four from Westmoor will be honored for academic achievement during their high school careers. Parents of the students will be invited as guests of the Chamber.

Chairman James V. Grealish has announced that tickets at $6 may be purchased at the chamber office, 6454 Mission Street, or at the Westlake Bowl.

Discussion on Proposed Multi-Purpose Building

First on the agenda for the May meeting of the Holy Angels Women's Guild will be an explanation of the proposed multi-purpose building by the Men's Club president, David Campbell.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. in the parish hall today. New officers for the 1968-70 executive board are: President, Mrs. Raymond Nightingale; first vice president, Mrs. Louis Casarza; second vice president, Mrs. James Pretti; recording secretary, Mrs. Joseph Zanobini; treasurer, Mrs. James Bruno; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Fitzgerald; and membership chairman, Mrs. James

MERGER

Formed about a month ago, three Westmoorites have merged their musical talents to create a new group called TRIAD. The trio including Pat Crandall, Debbie Johnson, and Kathleen O'Shaughnessy, first evinced its abilities during Westmoor's Spring Festival at all three lunches.

Young People Today Are Making The News, And Most Of It Is Good News

As any reader knows, our young people are making news daily.

But often the impression is that the young people make little good news and dominate only the field of "bad" news.

So, we at The Times decided to do a little checking to see just how the young people stack up in the news making department.

The clippings above represent a portion of just some of the news space devoted to the doings of young people during a typical week of Times coverage.

Most people may be surprised to find the good news of young people far outweighs the reports of their troubles.

The range of the activities on the plus side show the many things these young people are doing for themselves, their fellow teen-agers, the community, and the nation.

During the school year there are daily accounts of participation in essay and oratory contests on patriotic subjects, student government doings, activities in the arts, school musical programs, dramas, debating, literary efforts and other events.

And, of course, they are busy developing skills in all sports.

Some, too, made the wedding announcements, starting new families for tomorrow.

But it is so ordinary that most of us don't tend to pay any attention to young people making news such as this. What stands out, most unfortunately, is that small portion of the news which reports the scrapes, offenses, and troubles of the young people.

We thought this story was an interesting one and we wanted you to share it with us. And we know that our young people will continue making more good news, more important news, through the tomorrows.

Current Craze for Chinese Cooking Had Counterpart in the Mid-1800's

The current craze for Chinese cooking is nothing new. It's actually a revival of interest stirred up initially in the mid-1800's with the opening of the first Chinese restaurants in America. The early 20's, coinciding with the Mah Jong fad, saw another peak for Chinese cookery although only a few dishes—chop suey, chow mein, fried rice and egg foo yong—were commonly served.

World War II really broadened homemakers' interest in this style of cooking. Since most Chinese dishes call for one quarter the amount of meat to which we are accustomed, they were easily adapted to meat rationing. Dishes which became famous at this time included Lobster Cantonese, Chicken with Mushrooms (Moo Goo Gai Pan), Barbecued Spareribs and Won Ton Soup.

Today, although still considered somewhat exotic, Chinese food appears regularly in most American homes. No special cooking equipment is required for its preparation; if ingredients are not readily available, numerous substitutes can be used.

Peanuts, as well as peanut oil, are important ingredients in Chinese cooking. In a country where meat is scarce, peanuts are an important source of protein in the diet. They also add flavor and texture interest to a variety of meat and vegetable dishes. Chinese cooks, fond of crispy garnishes, often sprinkle chopped peanuts over the top of foods before they are brought to the table.

Chicken Dish Is Company Fare
Chicken is almost always served to dinner guests in China where it is believed to represent all the warm and positive elements of universal life. In America, chicken is economical and universally liked, making it ideal company fare.

Here, Cocktail Peanuts put the crunch in a flavorful Chinese-style combination of diced chicken and vegetables in a savory sauce.

A meal-in-one-dish by American standards, you might accompany this with hot, fluffy rice and cooked snow peas or a green salad and dessert. To serve it in the Chinese manner, partner Chinese Chicken with Peanuts, Barbecued Spareribs and a stir-fried vegetable combination; for dessert, serve ice cream with fortune cookies.

CHINESE CHICKEN WITH PEANUTS
8 pounds chicken breasts
1/2 cup Peanut Oil
2 cans (6 ounces each) sliced mushrooms, undrained
1 cup cocktail peanuts
1 cup minced green onions
1/4 cup cornstarch
2 large cloves garlic, minced
1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
Dash cayenne pepper
1/2 cup molasses
1/2 cup soy sauce
1/4 cup sherry
Hot cooked rice

Bone chicken, remove skin and cut into 1-inch pieces. Heat Peanut Oil in skillet; add chicken and brown. Add mushrooms, cocktail peanuts, green onions, cornstarch, garlic, ginger, pepper, molasses, and soy sauce. Cook, stirring until thickened. Cover; cook over low heat 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add sherry; heat. Serve over rice. Makes 8 servings.

Sweet and Sour
When Chinese cooks say "meat" they usually mean pork, also a company favorite as the symbol of prosperity and plenty. Since the proportion of meat to vegetables usually follows the Confucius golden mean of one-fourth meat to three-fourths vegetables, Americans generally increase the amount of meat used.

This recipe for Sweet and Sour Pork enlivened with Chopped Cocktail Peanuts was developed for American tastes. For Chinese-style service, you might accompany this dish with Chinese Chicken with Peanuts, stir-fried shrimp with vegetables, egg rolls and bowls of steaming white rice. To integrate it into American menus, serve Sweet and Sour Pork with Peanuts with rice and cooked cabbage or wilted lettuce.

SWEET AND SOUR PORK WITH PEANUTS
1 pound pork tenderloin, cut into 1-inch cubes
1 1/2 cups carrots, sliced diagonally into 1-inch pieces
Water
1/4 cup white vinegar
3 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon catsup
1 tablespoon soy sauce
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
2 eggs, separated
1 tablespoon unsifted flour

Peanut Oil
1 large green pepper, cut into thin strips
1 can (13 1/2 ounce) pineapple chunks
1/2 cup Cocktail Peanuts
Hot cooked rice
Combine pork and carrots in a saucepan. Simmer in water just to cover about 20 minutes, or until carrots are tender but crisp. Drain; reserve liquid. Separate pork and carrots; set aside. Return liquid to saucepan; boil rapidly until liquid is reduced to 1 cup. Strain and combine with vinegar, brown sugar, cornstarch, catsup, soy sauce, 1/4 teaspoon salt and ginger. Set aside.

Beat egg whites and remaining 1/4 teaspoon salt until soft peaks form. Beat flour into egg yolks and fold into beaten egg whites. Coat pork cubes with egg mixture. Deep fry in hot (400°F.) Peanut Oil until golden brown. Drain on paper towels; keep warm.

In 1 tablespoon of the hot Peanut Oil, stir-fry carrots and green pepper for 2 minutes. Add pineapple chunks and syrup. Stir in cornstarch mixture and Peanuts. Bring to a boil; simmer until mixture is thickened and clear. Return pork to mixture. Serve immediately with hot cooked rice. Makes about 4 servings.

Pears Offer Opportunity to Create Unusual Desserts for Special Meals

It's the unusual dessert that crust, made from biscuit mix, is often makes a meal special, quick and easy to prepare. Over good and yet it's dressy. With this recipe for Pears a la Creme, you can prepare the unusual from a favorite staple on your kitchen shelf, canned Bartlett pears. Drained pear halves are arranged, cut side down, over a rich crust. The finger pressed purpose

PEARS A LA CREME
2 cups biscuit mix
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup butter
1 (1 lb. 13 oz.) can Bartlett pears
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1 cup dairy sour cream
Nutmeg
1/2 cup slivered almonds

Mix biscuit mix with 2 tablespoons of brown sugar. Cut in and spoons of brown sugar. Cut in and butter until mixture looks like meal. Pat and press mixture firmly over bottom and halfway up sides of 8-inch square dish. Arrange pear halves, cut side down, in rows over mixture in pan. Sprinkle with remaining brown sugar. Bake 15 minutes at 375 degrees. Blend egg yolks and sour cream. Pour over mixture. Sprinkle nutmeg and almonds over top. Bake 30 minutes longer, or until custard is set. Serve warm or chilled.

Makes 9 servings.

for dressing. Spoon dressing over pear slices. Serve to four.

PARISIAN PEARS
Combine 1/4-cup kirsch, rum or Madeira wine with 1/4-cup apricot jam and juice from a one pound 13 oz. can of Bartlett pears. Cover the pears with this sauce. When ready to serve, drain pears and place in dessert dishes. Surround the halved pears with grapes or canned sweet cherries. Top with a scoop of vanilla ice cream.
Spoon a bit of sauce over all.
Makes 6 to 8 servings.

PEAR GOBLET SALAD
Stuff centers of canned pears with cream cheese and chopped pecans. Place in champagne or sherbet glasses. Cover with lemon gelatin dissolved in cranberry juice cocktail. Chill until gelatin is set.

PARTY PEARS
In a sauce pan, combine the syrup from a 1 lb. 13-oz. can of Bartlett pears with an equal amount of red wine. Add a stick of cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon powdered ginger, and 1/4 teaspoon saffron. Boil down quickly until reduced in half. Pour over the pears. Cover and chill several hours to set the flavor. Serve chilled or re-heat and serve warm as meat accompaniment.
Delicious with poultry, roast beef or lamb.

QUICK AND EASY
Drain a 1 lb. 13-oz. can of pear halves, reserving the syrup. Stick each pear half with whole cloves and place, cut side down, in a saucepan. Mix 1 tablespoon pickling spices and 2 tablespoons vinegar with the pear syrup and pour over the pears. Simmer gently for 3 minutes. Let stand off heat to mellow the flavor of the pears.
These spiced pears go well with meat dishes, especially curry.

Interesting Topping For Chicken

This chicken dish boasts an interesting topping — and there's plenty of it to serve with rice.

WENDY WOOLERY, GEORGE JURAND

'In White America' Stage Production by Jeff Pupils

"... And before I'll be a slave I'll be buried in my grave, and go home to my Lord and be free..."

"In White America," written by Martin B. Duberman, describes what it has been like to be black during the last 200 years.

"In White America," to be presented by Jefferson High School students May 8-9-10 in Daly City, takes you through the horrors of slave ships, the degradation of slavery, the problems of sudden and unprepared-for freedom, and the black man's long, difficult struggle for self-recognition.

Based entirely on authentic historical documents, the innermost thoughts of both blacks and whites about human rights and slavery are explored and revealed.

The cast includes eleven actors and two singers. Climaxing up to four years of participation in drama at Jeff are Seniors Wendy Woolery, Tom Winterhalter, and Leon Colvin.

They are cast as: Eliza Andrews, a Georgian lady who was very disgusted with the whole idea of emancipation; Thomas Jefferson, who was convinced through very logical thinking that the blacks are inferior to the whites; Nat Turner, the rebellious slave who threatened the lives of many plantation owners.

Three other seniors who have also participated in other productions are Debbie Von-Herrmann, Tom Neary, and Cyndy Spitzer. Debbie reads from the diary of a ship's doctor, Tom portrays John Brown, and Cyndy brings to life Mary Boykin Chestnut.

Rounding out the list are one Ray Howard, and some newcomers — Eida Fontenot, George Jurand, Sue McAllister, and Fern Tracey, cast as Monroe Trotter, Sojourner Truth, Father Divine, Miss Beautiful Love, and Daisy Bates.

The singers are Roberta Christian and Sharon Richard. The crew has experienced and talented members on its list. Stage manager will be Carl Murray. Margie Talavera will be supervising make-up and costumes. Theon Byrd and Scott Tiraschi will be in charge of lighting. The house will be run by Mike Hess, sound by David Graham, and special effects by David Archer.

DC Hootenanny

The students of guitar classes sponsored by the Daly City recreation Department will hold a "Hootenanny" May 12 at the Westmoor Park Clubhouse, 123 Edgemont Drive, at 7 p.m. under the direction of Bunnie Gregoire, guitar instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Blecher of San Mateo have embarked on a three-month world cruise on the SS Canberra. They were honored with a bon voyage party before departing for Acapulco, the Canal Zone, Jamaica, Nassau, Lison, LeHavre, Britain, a 17-day tour of Europe, Canary Islands South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Hawaii and Vancouver.

Picking Vegetables To Complete Menu

GOOD MORNING, good cooks.

When you plan a dinner the first thing you select is the meat isn't it? Then you plan the starch, the type of salad and the vegetables to complete the menu plus a dessert. This week a phone call reminded me of a tasty recipe for carrots (my friend had lost the recipe), and started me thinking about different ways to serve vegetables.

I'll start off with these carrots. They require a little extra work, but then most things worth while require that we spend more time on them.

SUNSHINE CARROTS

- 1 bunch carrots
- 1 orange rind
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons butter
- One-third cup water

Scrape the carrots and cut into long-thin strips. Cut the orange rind in the same manner. Cook the carrots in a small amount of boiling salted water until tender. Don't overcook. Season with the two tablespoons of butter.

Cover the strips of orange peel with cold water and bring to a boil. Boil one minute. Drain and repeat three times. Prepare a thick syrup by combining the three-fourths cup sugar with the one-third cup water. Place the drained orange peel in his syrup and allow to simmer for 45 minutes. Add the cooked carrots to orange rind and simmer 10 minutes more.

GREEN BEANS enjoy great popularity in many homes. Served with butter, salt and pepper they are a tasty addition to the meal. Another simple way to prepare them is to add a bit of olive oil and a dash of garlic salt to the cooked beans. However since the idea behind today's column is to suggest some different and fancy ways to serve vegetables, this next version of green beans might appeal to you.

Besides being quite delicious this dish has the added attraction of being a good waiter. By that I do not mean that it carries itself to the table and jumps onto your plate unassisted. I mean that it can be made ahead and will wait in the refrigerator to be baked. (Hmmm, have I created a new word? Attention: Funk and Wagnalls.)

GREEN BEANS SWISS STYLE

- 2 cans green beans, French style
- 1 cup sour cream
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt and pepper
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon grated onion
- 2 cups crushed corn flakes
- 2 tablespoons butter, melted
- 1/2 pound Swiss cheese, grated

Open and drain the two cans of green beans. Melt the two tablespoons butter in a small frying pan, add the two tablespoons flour and stir until blended. Add the half teaspoon each salt and pepper, one teaspoon sugar, and the half teaspoon grated onion. Heat, stirring constantly, until it bubbles. Remove from heat and cool slightly. Add the one cup sour cream. Mix and combine with the green beans.

Pour into a buttered dish and sprinkle the half pound grated Swiss cheese over the top. Finally mix the two tablespoons melted butter with the two cups crushed cornflakes and sprinkle over top of beans. Cover with foil. Bake in 400-degree oven for 20 minutes. Serves 8.

LET'S SEE, we've talked about an orange vegetable and a green vegetable how about a red vegetable? After all a cook is an artist and a true artist uses color freely.

HARVARD BEETS

- 2 cans diced beets
- Two-thirds cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1/2 cup vinegar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup butter

Drain the two cans beets, reserving one-half cup liquid. In a large saucepan combine the two-thirds cup sugar with the two tablespoons cornstarch; mix well. Gradually stir in the reserved beet liquid, the one-half cup vinegar and the three-fourths teaspoon salt. Bring to a boiling point while stirring. Reduce heat and simmer for two minutes. Sauce should be slightly thickened and translucent. Add the drained beets; simmer very slowly, stirring occasionally for 15 minutes. Just before serving, add the one-fourth cup butter and bring just to boiling. Serves 8.

VEGETABLES don't have to perform solo, they can sing a duet. Cauliflower and carrots make a delightful combination, especially when baked in a tasty cheese sauce.

GOLDEN CAULIFLOWER

- 1 medium head cauliflower
- 1 cup raw carrots, diced
- 1/4 cup onion, chopped fine
- 2 tablespoons butter
- Salt to taste
- Dash of paprika
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup grated American cheese

Let the cauliflower stand in salted cold water, head down about 30 minutes. Rinse in clear water and break into flowerets.

Arrange the cauliflower and the cup of carrots in a buttered casserole. Combine the one-fourth cup chopped onion with the two tablespoons melted butter and add to the vegetables. Add salt and paprika. Pour the cup of milk over all and sprinkle with the one cup grated cheese.

Cover and bake in 350-degree oven for one-hour, removing cover for last 10 minutes of baking. Serves 6.

Golden Anniversary is Celebrated

THE SILVIO SCHENONES
Golden Anniversary Party

A nuptial mass at All Souls Catholic Church in South San Francisco celebrated the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Silvio Schenone of South San Francisco.

The mass was followed by a surprise dinner and dance at the Montclair Restaurant in San Francisco hosted by Mrs. Gloria Moraes, their daughter; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Callas, daughter and son-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Schenone and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schenone, sons and daughters-in-law.

Grandchildren attending were Joann and Donald Shaw of Texas; Julie, Paul and Larry. Moraes; Melanie and Stephanie Callas; Amy, Becky, Christine, Janine, Matthew, Derek and Christopher Schenone.

Members of the original wedding party at the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hickey of Hillsborough, altar boy and his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Carmelo Imprescia of South San Francisco.

A Second No-Hitter For Collins

Capuchino High School is the pace setter in the Mid-Peninsula League baseball race, but Aragon High School's Kevin Collins is commanding all the attention. Capuchino posted its sixth win in seven games with a 2-0 victory over San Mateo on Friday while Collins hurled his second no-hitter of the season to lead Aragon to a 1-0 victory over Crestmoor High School.

In another MPL contest, Burlingame blanked Hillsdale High School, 6-0, to move into second place with a 5-3 record. Collins, a righthander who hurled his first no-hitter against Burlingame High School on March 28 in the league opener, struck out ten and walked two. He needed such a superb performance to best Crestmoor's Larry Wright, who fanned eight and gave up only two singles.

Two walks, one intentional, an error and a bases loaded seing by Dave Robb produced Aragon's run.

Matt Krileitch pitched and batted Capuchino to its victory, hurling a four-hitter and driving in both runs with a single over (Please See Page 36, Column 1)

Double Trouble

Dandy Day For Dutton

Biggest hero of the many who helped South San Francisco defeat Westmoor on Friday in the dramatic windup to the NPL dual meet season was Ray Dutton, who contributed two firsts, a second and a relay leg to his team's cause. In top photo, Dutton breaks tape in front of teammate Ralph Galloway, nearest camera, to win 100-yard dash. In bottom photo, Dutton rewrites his own SSF long jump record with a 22-1 leap for another victory. South S.F. won, 83-53.

Rave Reviews For SSF In Rout of Westmoor

South San Francisco High School, in the talented legs of Ray Dutton, among others, took a giant step toward total acquisition of the North Peninsula League track and field championship Friday.

In a confrontation that was supposed to be closer, Dutton scored 14 1/2 points in leading the Warriors to an 83-53 varsity verdict over the Westmoor Rams, the NPL's other main contender for this year's track title.

The victory gave South City a perfect 6-0 record for dual meet competition and the favorite's mantle for the NPL Finals that will be contested at Westmoor on May 16th. The Rams still have a chance to tie the Industrial City spike set for the overall crown, but it's now a longshot, at best.

"Anything can happen, of course," Warrior coach Marv Ashby said after Friday's competition. "But we're a little more confident of our ability in the championship meet than we were in the dual."

Dutton, who had erased a 23-year-old school long jump record two weeks previous, wrote an even finer revision into the books with a 22-1 effort for one of his first places in the dramatic dual windup. He also scored a stunning upset in the 100, where he beat Westmoor's favored Scott Heaton, in 10.6, finished second in the triple jump, and ran the leadoff leg on the Warriors' winning 440 relay team.

Ashland Whitfield, the Warriors' State Meet hurdles contender, won both the high and low versions of his specialty with respective clockings of 15.4 and 19.7 while Jim Olmo also came through with an exception mark in a 53-3/4 shot put victory.

Warriors' Grid Slate Starts Tough

Leaving nothing to the imagination, South San Francisco High School's football forces will begin their 1969 schedule with what might be their three toughest games of the season, according to the schedule released this week by head coach Ray de Jong.

Beginning with defending MPL champion San Mateo on September 19 in South San Francisco, the Warriors then take on St. Ignace on September 26 in San Francisco and Westmoor in South San Francisco on October 3. All three contests will be night games.

Sandwiched around a non-league effort against Capuchino of the MPL on October 24, the rest of the Cap sked involves NPL foes.

South S. F. finishes its season on the road with a pair of games: against Jefferson in Daly City on November 7 and against Half Moon Bay on the Coastside on November 14.

Other games on the '69 schedule include: at Oceana on October 10 and Terra Nova at home on October 31.

LE PACINI

WE RECEIVED a disquieting message through the mail last week. It was from Art Dikas, president of the San Francisco Baseball Oldtimers' Association, who felt it worth mentioning in the prime local weekly newspaper that no less than 30 of the association's members 350 members including five officers — Dikas among them — are Daly City residents.

Numbered among the D.C. members, excluding Dikas, are: George Bouska, Bob Bertelson, Jack Ceccacci, Harvey Christiansen, Ed Coleman, Mel Collett, Frank Carozzi, Jim Davis, Lloyd Dickey, Frank Falconi, Bob Foppiano, Jack and Jim Grealish, Tom Jovick, Harry Lee, Nick Mud, Fred Palmer, Frank Plutt, Bud Pellisier, Marino Pieretti, Cliff Righetti, Bob Simon, Bill Solari, Ed Stewart, Bill Souza, Ralph Amott, Bill Nunes, Gene Gaviglio, and Lou Palmint.

That's quite a local representation, especially considering that when the Oldtimers' Association was created in 1941, it had a charter membership of only 25. The limit is set at the current 350 and there is at the moment a waiting list of 125.

The Association has a baseball program befitting oldtimers ... a four-game schedule — against other oldtimers' organizations, of course.

A prospective Oldtimers' member must be over 35 years old, must have participated in semi-pro or professional baseball, and must have a continuing interest in baseball and its growth in the Bay Area.

Oh yes, why was Art's message so disquieting? Because this year we qualify for the latter two requisites. Next year we'll qualify for the first.

WHILE WE'RE STILL on the subject of oldtimers and semi-pro ball: we got an urgent telephone message on the same day we received Dikas' missive, from old-time sandlotter Gene Daley, who's attempting to locate Freddie Sullivan, who used to pitch for IXL Tamales in 1929 while working for the Wells Fargo Bank in San Francisco, and who now resides somewhere in San Mateo County.

Daley, now retired, is anxious to get together with his old buddy for a bartering session.

Freddie, if you're reading this, Gene's address is 956 Athens Street, San Francisco, or if anybody knows Sullivan and his whereabouts, Daley would be appreciative if they would contact him with the appropriate information.

SO IF YOU'VE read the above two items (and if you did, we'll assume you're an old sandlot fan), you're probably saying to yourself right about now, "What ever happened to sandlot baseball? Why, when I was a kid you used to have to fight to get a diamond, now they're left to roaming dogs, etc., etc."

We have of course gone into this subject at length on several occasions. We've talked of kid interest waning because of television, cars, other more diverse participant and spectator sports now available, we've interviewed oldtimers who knew sandlot baseball when it was at its peak, when kids played several games a week and were happy just to sit benches on organized, uniformed teams. Last year we discussed with Walter Mails how high school playoffs and all-star games at Seals Stadium used to draw 5-10,000, how championship games at Father Crowley and Funston and Golden Gate Park used to spill spectators out onto the playing area so that the open fields would have to be roped off to contain the crowds.

MAILS CLAIMED that one of the big factors against teen-age balls is high school administrators who de-emphasize the game because, unlike basketball and football, baseball — because the fields aren't fenced in — cannot charge admission and can therefore derive no revenue for the schools.

In connection with this theory, we herewith reprint (in part) a letter from Joe Consoli, scouting supervisor for the Pittsburgh Pirates, as it appeared in the column of C. C. Johnson Spink, editor and publisher of the Sporting News, several weeks ago:

"Unless something is done with the high school baseball program, football and basketball (the glamour sports) will phase it out. It is a known and proven fact that almost three times more boys play high school football than ... baseball ... in college the ratio is 17 to one."

"The bigger or better athletes are pressured by the football and basketball coaches because the money sports rule the roost. Years ago, the school boards were made up of baseball people. Today, school boards are more interested in the money that comes through the gate for football and basketball. The boy comes second. Most boys have no choice. They must play one of these sports, especially if they are big."

"College boards and, to a larger extent, college football coaches, force many better baseball players to play football, whether they prefer baseball or not. This is done by giving the athlete a football scholarship. Baseball in most colleges is only a tie-in sport. Only those who can't make the football team are permitted to be absent from spring football practice. ...

"Furthermore, every college rule that baseball has adopted in the past ten years has been of a defensive nature. Our rules keep athletes in college to play football and restrict their baseball development. Few people know that baseball is the toughest of all major sports to play and to coach. Few sports writers truly understand that a major league baseball star cannot be produced in 50 games like a football player. It takes hundreds of games. ...

"If baseball is to survive, we must do more for the high school baseball program on a year-round basis. ...

"Most of all, the colleges should be made to pay the price by giving equal scholarships to prospective athletes who want to play baseball. ...

"How a recently selected high school draftee can turn down a baseball bonus of $18,000 in order to play football is beyond me ... Baseball should investigate the house of college football and put it back in its amateur status. Coaches included. It is a matter of life and death for baseball. Football is mainly eating us up — illegally."

FOR STATISTICS WATCHERS (Who are still thinking about basketball):

It may surprise you fans to know that Bill Turner played in more games (79) this past season than any other Warrior ...

And that sixth-man Joe Ellis easily fouled out of more games (13) than any of his teammates ... And it probably won't surprise you that LSU gunner Pete Maravich owned eight of the first 10 highest single game scoring marks in NCAA basketball this past year ... nor that UCLA beat its opponents by an average of about 21 points per contest.

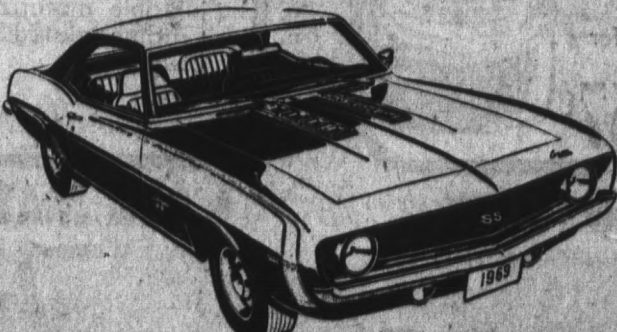

LOCAL BOY NOTE: Terra Nova's (and Giants') Marty Coll, is at this writing hitting a cool 500 (13 for 26) for Amarillo while playing just about every position but his natural one (first base).

But Marty's a little unhappy because he's sitting the bench more than he ever has in his life.

Hitting .500 and sitting the bench? That's pro ball, fans. Marty didn't get as big a bonus as some of the other kids on the team, and the big investments get the biggest chances.

Jeff, Terra Nova Battling to Wire

Up until Friday it was open-season on first place in the North Peninsula League baseball race but it now appears that Jefferson and Terra Nova will be battling right down to the final game for the coveted title.

Each of the contenders took impressive victories in league action on Friday with the Indians winning a nine-inning 1-0 victory over Westmoor while the Tigers defeated error-prone Half Moon Bay 4-0. El Camino won the other NPL contest, 7-5, over Oceana.

Frank Edelman's two-out ninth-inning single drove in pitcher Bill Fischer with the game's only run as Jeff maintained a one-half game lead over Terra Nova. The run proved fatal for Westmoor's Dana Marcus, who had pitched a brilliant one-hitter over the first eight innings and allowed just two hits in nine complete frames.

The winning inning started for Jeff when Smoky Morton lined out. Mike Egipciaco was safe on a Westmoor error but was thrown out by catcher Al Lieske trying to steal. Fischer was then hit by Marcus on the right arm. He then stole second and third just before Edelman's hit.

Fischer was forced to leave the game in the ninth with a sore throwing arm and relief pitcher Nick Gentile got into the act with two strikeouts in the bottom of the ninth, including the final out with Westmoor's tying run on second.

Fischer struck out eight in his just third. Marcus, who was throwing so hard that it affected his control, struck out five but walked six.

Both squads blew scoring opportunities as a standing-room only crowd at Marchbank looked on. Marcus led off the Westmoor sixth with a triple but died at third when Fischer struck out the next two Ram batters and got Steve Gilmore to ground out.

Westmoor's other big chance came in the seventh when Ed Nessel and Joel Carrara walked and advanced on an infield out. With two outs Nessel tried to steal home but Jeff catcher George Castro busted through the batter and tagged him out on a close, and hotly disputed, play.

Jefferson had its chances also, especially in the eighth when Ken Reitz, the Indians top hitter, came to bat with two out and the bags loaded. He hit a smash on one hop to Gordy Contreras who forced the runner at second.

"It was the best game I have ever been involved in as either a coach or a player," said winning mentor Tom Martinez. "There were eight or nine brilliant defensive plays and situations that were handled with flawless accuracy by both squads."

Terra Nova, striving to maintain its second-place standing, got help from the Half Moon Bay defense in posting its win. Left-hander Jim Emery and TN's John Burgess could still be pitching scoreless innings today if it weren't for four Cougar errors in the first two innings.

Bill Downing opened the game by gaining line on the first error. Pat Woodward then walked and Bob McClure sacrificed them along and had his bunt played for a delayed-action error, number two. Then with the bags loaded Emery got Mike Calder to hit into an apparent double play only to have the third error allow two runs to score. Mike Rawlings then singled and the Tigers worked the double steal for the third unearned run.

In the second Vince Lampe-dechio singled and was sacrificed to second. Another of Downing's grounders was dropped for the fourth error and the fourth run came across.

"Emery is by far the best pitcher we have faced all year," commented Tiger coach Al Flogone. "We couldn't touch him after he started throwing his curve. He's the best looking jun-

Jeff Edges T.N., Gains Loop Lead

Jefferson, which has flirted around the top spot all season, took over undisputed possession of the number one slot with a 5-2 victory over Terra Nova, last week's pace-setter. And the Indians had to be happy with at least one other contest as El Camino, which has dropped out of title contention, lambasted hopeful South San Francisco, 6-2, and dropped the Warriors to the .500 mark with a 4-4 record. In the other league game Westmoor edged last-place Oceana, 2-1, marking the sixth straight loss of the Shark nine, May 2.

A two-run homer by leftfielder Tony Moss and two more run scoring plays by third baseman Frank Edelman supplied the power for the Indian win. Ace right-hander Nick Gentile picked up the win with a strong six-hitter and some excellent defensive support.

Gentile had excellent control striking out seven with no walks. His counterpart, TN's Bob McClure, struck out seven but walked six more while surrendering six hits. Only four pickoffs at first base kept him from more serious problems.

Jeff opened with two runs in the first when Ken Reitz singled in Moss, via an error, and after a hit batter and infield hit, Edelman's walk drove in the second run. Two more Jeff runs came in the second when Bruce Davidson walked ahead of Mosses centerfield blast.

McClure got a run for himself when he hit a homer to left for the Tigers in the sixth followed by an RBI single by Mike Humphrey after Pat Woodward had gained line on an error.

Three pitchers combined for a three-hitter as the Colts gained revenge over South City. Pete Alexander, Fred Hjerpe and Ted DePucchi toed the mound with Hjerpe getting the win thanks to DePucchi's three innings of hitless relief.

Down 1-0 in the fourth the Colts exploded for five runs to drive starter Bruce Collins from the mound. Tom Buckley opened the gates with a single and DePucchi, who had three hits, doubled him home. Catcher Darrell Lauer got an infield hit sending DePucchi to third where he scored on a SSF error. Mike Tenerowicz then unloaded a three-run home run over the leftfield fence to put Camino ahead for good.

The Colts added the final run when Paul Lee tripled and scored on another SSF miscue.

South City scored one in the third when Lou Lodigiani walked, was wild pitched to second and then to third and came (Please See Page 36, Column 2) for pitcher I've seen in many years."

Terra Nova's Burgess didn't do so badly, either, as the senior right-hander struck out nine after he started throwing his curve. He's the best looking jun-

El Camino Smashes Jeff

El Camino's tracksters went through the motions Thursday in beating outmanned Jefferson, 12-5, in a North Peninsula League meet Friday. Jefferson's low-quantity squad failed to even enter the two relay events.

Slow Pitch Managers Will Meet

A meeting of all team managers who wish to enter their adult slow pitch softball team in the Daily City Recreation Department League, will be held May 7 at 7:30 p.m., in the Recreation Department Conference Room in the War Memorial Community Center at 6655 Mission Street.

The purpose of this meeting will be to discuss rules, regulations, fees and league procedures.

The league is tentatively scheduled to begin on June 2 at 6 p.m.

For further information contact Joe Greenberg, recreation supervisor.

Crestmoor Wins Relays

Crestmoor and Capuchino High Schools played the part of poor hosts this past weekend as the two track teams finished one-two in the San Bruno Relays.

The Falcons, getting excellent times from the relay teams despite the hurricane-like winds Saturday, barely edged out the Mustangs, 67-63, for first place. The other finishers, in order, were Woodside, Terra Nova, El Camino and Jefferson.

Warrior Booster Club Holds Honors Banquet

The Warrior Booster Club hosted a banquet recently for the basketball, wrestling and soccer teams of South San Francisco High School.

The varsity and sophomore basketball teams won championships in the North Peninsula League. Senior awards were presented to Bob Collins, Paul Sawyer, Sam Smith, Steve Veneres, Rocky Walker and Dick Young, basketball; Armando Realyvasquez, Don Lazar, Kim Marlower, Dave Brett and Lou Seever, wrestling; Susano Amadio, Bill Craib, Kim D'Amico, Bill Davies, John Ferreira, Martin Iniguez, Kim Olmo, Mike Pizzo, Roby Richards, Dave Sarracino, Bill Shreve, Don Solomon, Dennis Bella and Jim Zyker, soccer.

The varsity basketball banquet was given to Steve Veneres, athlete of the week honors, went to Mike Larios, Tim Nixson, Steve Venters, Rocky Walker, and Dick Young.

Dave Brett received the wrestling blanket award and Larry Stenson, Calvin Tate and Dave Brett, athlete of the week.

Jim Zyker was selected for the varsity soccer blanket award. Athlete of the week award went to Ralph Iacini, Fernando Juarez, Donovan Wood and Jim Zyker.

Junior varsity soccer won the NPL championship and the SSF-El Camino trophy is again at SSF High School, according to Bev Tonnegate, publicity chairman.

Gail Picchi was the basketball queen and Jan Ciardilla and Paula Funai were attendants.

'Big Give' for Catholic Laity

For the first time, the Catholic laymen of the Bay Area will be asked to contribute to the Catholic Charities Appeal in all six area dioceses simultaneously on the same day.

This appeal, which is annually made to the more than two million Catholic laymen in the 31 counties of Northern California, will be taken up on May 18.

Purpose of the appeal is to obtain funds to support the many Catholic charities to which the Church's lay body donates each year.

Each Diocese has been assigned its own goal dictated by needs within its boundaries. Although the appeal will be conducted individually, the plan for the same date carries the plea for financial assistance to aid the poor and distressed to a greater number of Californians through the combined news and publicity efforts.

Too, each diocese will reportedly net a cost savings through the centralized purchasing of appeal material. A bit of the philosophy behind this is to give witness to the universality of charity; for though each diocese has its own charitable programs, they join hands together in the appeal to help all of their neighbors, regardless of race or creed.

This one day Catholic Charities Sunday is an appeal to lay wage earners to pledge generously a year-round monthly gift to the needs of others.

The goals are: San Francisco Archdiocese — $450,000.00; Oakland Diocese — $381,000.00; Monterey Diocese — $30,000.00; Fresno Diocese — $114,000.00; Stockton Diocese — $75,000.00; Santa Rosa Diocese — $20,000.00.

In 1968 the laymen of the San Francisco Archdiocese responded generously to Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken's appeal for year-round giving. This enabled Catholic Charities to undertake special outreach programs and to strengthen traditional services.

For, as new forms of need for social services evolve, Catholic Charities has placed major emphasis on developing programs which reach out to ward groups and individuals so seriously disadvantaged that they cannot or will not approach the agencies for assistance.

Among these special programs are: Arriba Juntos — San Francisco; Services to the Aging — San Francisco; Community Services — Marin County; Homemaker Services — San Mateo County; East-side Center — Santa Clara County.

Also, continuing professional counseling and other programs to alleviate human suffering and to preserve the family which are assisted by Catholic Charities are: Catholic Social Service of San Francisco, Marin, San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties.

DEATHS

Class On Teachings Of Church

Sunday during the 9:45 a.m. Sunday hour, Pastor A. David Donnelly will conduct a class for those interested in knowing what the church teaches, in learning the requirements of membership.

During the Sunday School hour, which is scheduled for the entire family, there are three adult classes, and 12 age-graded, Bible centered classes. "Watch You Steps" is the topic for the 11 a.m. Sunday service topic, chosen by Pastor Donnelly.

Special Mother's Day recognition will be given to the oldest mother in attendance, the youngest mother, and the mother present in church that service.

Special music for this Mother's Day service will be by the Ladies Trio, Mrs. Gilmore Swanson, Mrs. Bill DeLung and Miss Diane Swedberg.

During the adult worship service, a church service for boys and girls is held. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dershem will direct this program.

A nursery is maintained for babies and toddlers.

A pastor's class is also to be conducted during the 6:15 p.m. Youth Hour for adult and youth.

The Primary Girl's Missionary Guild will meet at this hour, also. Then three youth groups, junior, junior high and senior high, are to meet at this hour.

At 7 p.m. is family fellowship

Consolidation Of Law Enforcement Seen by Whitmore

San Mateo County Sheriff Earl Whitmore Thursday told north county mayors and councilmen some sort of "consolidated police agency" is inevitably going to be developed in the county, "though we probably won't be around to see it."

Whitmore, speaking at the North County Council of Cities meeting in Brisbane, said the duplication of administrative and communication services in the law enforcement field is an unnecessary expense for county taxpayers.

"There is really no point to having 20 police chiefs, deputy chiefs and other administrators for a population that could be served by one central department," he said.

Whitmore said, however, that he is not proposing a consolidated law enforcement agency.

"I expect to be gone from the scene long before it comes about," he said.

Pacifica Mayor Nick Guss, who frequently has proposed that his city contract with the sheriff's department for police services, suggested that a study be undertaken to investigate the feasibility of either expanding the sheriff's agency to include cities or merging the law enforcement agencies of several cities in the north county area.

Whitmore outlined the county's new helicopter patrol program at the meeting, and presented a film on a pilot project involving the use of helicopters in the city of Lakewood.

He said the helicopter patrol will be less expensive than present automobile patrols in the final analysis, though the initial expense is great.

The two copters ordered by the county will cost approximately $50,000 each, he said, and $5,000 will be spent to train each pilot.

However, the cost of patrolling with the copters is $8.54 per square mile, compared to $54.29 per square mile for patrol cars, according to the sheriff.

"The cost of operating helicopters compares favorably with the cost of operating patrol cars because the airborne patrolmen will not be involved in routine calls and traffic tie-ups," Whitmore said.

He said current plans call for operating the two copters during the "high crime" periods between 11 a.m. and 2 a.m.

Woman's Role To Be Topic

Donna Sublow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Sublow, will participate in Congregation B'nai Israel Sabbath Services Friday as she celebrates her Bat Mitzvah.

Services are conducted by Rabbi Solomon A. Shore and Cantor Henry Greenberg and begin at 8:30 p.m.

Rabbi Shore's sermon topic for the evening will be "The Role of the Woman in the Synagogue."

Donna will be honored at a reception following the services hosted by her parents and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bernstein and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Epstein, in

BLUEPRINT FOR BETTER LIVING
SERVING THE PENINSULA FOR 24 YEARS

Art Show at D.C. Loan Association

Art students from San Francisco Adult Education classes are currently showing their work at three offices of American Savings and Loan Association—2201 Irving Street and 1811 Nineteenth Avenue in San Francisco and 5 Southgate Avenue, Daly City.

Eighteen students from the Pacific Heights Adult School classes are exhibiting more than 80 paintings spread through the American Savings' branches. The paintings will remain on display until May 16.

Many members of the classes take their art very seriously. For instance, Kathy Donlin after a lot of hard work was able to exhibit her paintings at the State Building in San Francisco and the Upper Grant Avenue Street Fair. Joanna Katz is working hard at becoming a full-time professional painter and also has studied at the San Francisco Art Institute and the College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland.

Other artists showing their work from the class include S. A. Fibish, Sylvia Goldstein, Phyllis Kern, Margaret Northcott, Francis Port, Florence Schwartz, Ann Stowell, Doris Trimble, Howard Blonsky, Joel Chabin, Semper Chaplin, Vera Dewagi, Shawn Dorsey and Erna Egli. The exhibits may be viewed at any of the three offices from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday.

Hearings On Rates Resume

SAN FRANCISCO — Public hearings on the second phase of Pacific Gas and Electric Company's application to the California Public Utilities Commission to increase rates and charges for gas service will resume Monday, May 12.

The gas utility is seeking an annual general increase in rates of $37.1 million in order to increase its rate of return from the present authorized 6.25 per cent to 7.5 per cent.

The hearings before Commissioner J. P. Vukasin, Jr. and CPUC Examiner Carol T. Coffey will begin at 10 a.m. in the Commission Courtroom, State Building, San Francisco, at which time PG&E will make its Cross-examination on this testimony and the exhibits will commence immediately following the gas company's presentation. The commission will subsequently announce the dates during which testimony and statements by customers and other members of the public will be heard.

Marketing Pupil Receives Award

Beth Byfield, senior marketing student, earned a third place in the California Regional Contest for Merchandising Student of the Year.

Student Fund Gives Center A Newspaper

Westmoor student body president Charlie Freiberg has presented a check for the amount of $500 for the Daly City Information and Referral Center to the Rev. Howard Bryant, founder of the center. Westmoor attained the goal of $500 by the selling of tickets to the first Annual NPL Invitational Pep Girl Competition, April 11.

The center aids non-English speaking Mexican-American families and low income families obtain help in education, employment training, and human relation areas. According to Reverend Bryant, who offered his thanks to the student body at an assembly on April 10, the money will be used specifically for the publication and distribution of a bi-lingual newspaper which will include news content and explanation of the center's activities.

Sirhan Prosecutor Is Millbrae Speaker

Lynn D. Compton, chief deputy district attorney for Los Angeles and chief prosecutor of Sirhan B. Sirhan, will be the featured speaker at dinner sponsored by the Santa Monica County Trial Lawyers' Association. The dinner will be held May 14, at the Thunderbolt Hotel in Millbrae.

A crowd of 400 attorneys, judges, wives, and guests are expected

Compton is a decorated war veteran, serving with the 101st Airborne after graduation from UCLA. He has been in the District Attorney's Office since 1951 and is past president of the Footprinters, a law officers' association; past president of the Peace Officers' Shrine Club of Los Angeles, and the American Legion Luncheon Club of Los Angeles.

He is active in the Los Angeles County Peace Officers' Association, California Peace Officers' Association, District Attorneys' Association of California, National District Attorneys' Association, and American Bar Association.

He is a member of council, section of criminal law, American Bar Association.

He was secretary-treasurer of Long Beach Bar Association for six years and is presently a member of the Criminal Courts Bar Association.

The American flag was ripped from the Daly City Civic Center pole by the high winds lacing the north county Saturday.

But, it was only one of numerous incidents that marked the chilling windstorm.

He represents the District Attorney of Los Angeles in legislative matters in Sacramento.

He was appointed to the Crime Technological Research Foundation, California Council of Criminal Justice, by Governor Reagan in April, 1969.

Area fire departments reported two to three incidents of damage — most of them minor. A few windows were blown out, several fences and trees felled and some power and fire alarm wires downed in the one-day blow.

Atty. George R. Corey of San Bruno will be the program chairman and serving on the dinner committee along with him will be Attys. Gordon L. Rockhill and Gregory S. Jensen of Redwood City and Daniel J. Monaco of San Mateo.

The much-celebrated trial of Sirhan B. Sirhan will be the subject matter of his talk, along with the current crime problem being experienced in our nation's large cities.

Asked following the return of the verdict, on Sirhan, whether anything at the trial might have given him reason to believe a death penalty verdict would be returned, Compton said:

"I don't believe the defend-

Compton is a decorated war veteran, serving with the 101st Airborne after graduation from UCLA. He has been in the District Attorney's Office since 1951 and is past president of the Footprinters, a law officers' association; past president of the Peace Officers' Shrine Club of Los Angeles, and the American Legion Luncheon Club of Los Angeles.

He is active in the Los Angeles County Peace Officers' Association, California Peace Officers' Association, District Attorneys' Association of California, National District Attorneys' Association, and American Bar Association.

He is a member of council, section of criminal law, American Bar Association.

He was secretary-treasurer of Long Beach Bar Association for six years and is presently a member of the Criminal Courts Bar Association.

He represents the District Attorney of Los Angeles in legislative matters in Sacramento.

He was appointed to the Crime Technological Research Foundation, California Council of Criminal Justice, by Governor Reagan in April, 1968.

Atty. George R. Corey of San Bruno will be the program chairman and serving on the dinner committee along with him will be Atty. Gordon L. Rockhill and Gregory S. Jensen of Redwood City and Daniel J. Monaco of San Mateo.

The much-celebrated trial of Sirhan B. Sirhan will be the subject matter of his talk, along with the current crime problem being experienced in our nation's large cities.

Asked following the return of the verdict, on Sirhan, whether anything at the trial might have given him reason to believe a death penalty verdict would be returned, Compton said:

ant's conduct was such as to evoke sympathy or endear him to the jury."

Compton obviously based his evaluation on the fact that in death penalty cases juries often are swayed as much by the personal actions and testimony of defendants as they are by the evidence against them.

Program Chairman Corey, stated, "It is a distinct honor to have an individual like Lynn Compton address our association. He is one of the foremost prosecutors in the State of California as recognized by his recent appointment by Governor Reagan to the California Council of Criminal Justice."

Wind Rips Flag Away

The American flag was ripped from the Daly City Civic Center pole by the high winds lacing the north county Saturday.

But, it was only one of numerous incidents that marked the chilling windstorm.

Area fire departments reported two to three incidents of damage — most of them minor. A few windows were blown out, several fences and trees felled and some power and fire alarm wires downed in the one-day blow.

Bowling Notes

Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

Betty Levesque rolled a great 243 game last Tuesday morning in the French Bros. Invitational League to take both high game and high series honors. Her first 100 in day was 322.

Secretary Rowena Delucchi and Dave Aring teamed to take top honors in the Monday evening Lakeside Mixed Fives League as Rowena rolled a 155 game and 40 series while Dave hit a big 236 game and 456 series.

Leading lady in the Parkmead League Wednesday morning was Claudia McCann who posted a 136 game and 453 series.

George Pell's 232 game and 402 series was high for the week in the 805 Scarf League.

Promotion Director Jim Latherberry announces a large advance registration for the Monday evening Blues and Reds Summer League. Those interested may join by calling him at 735-5777.

As the summer Ladies Invitational League kicked off, Maria De Panzi took top honors with a 178 game and four game series of 699.

George Ballester's 224 game and 410 series were high for the week in the Westlake Knolls League.

Rae Magnus and Emily Drago shared top honors in the Morning Glory League as Rae had a 327 series and Emily 208 high game.

Hail to the champs is the theme around Westlake this week. In the Park Plaza Mixed League, the Melvin Sonick team won the title while the Herman Sate team placed City Tansie in the Southwest Handicap and the AAA Emblem team won the Norgate Mixed Fives League.

Leading lady in the S. Thomas Mora League was Dot Carrara with a 197 game and 511.

And our thanks to Lori Carrara for doing such an excellent job as "summer replacement" for Marge Brown who took time off to compete in the California State Tournament and then a short, but home on Dave Gutierrez' double. In the fifth SSF scored when Lory Bernardini and Brad Brian walked and two infield outs scored Bernardini.

The wind played an important factor in the Westmoor win as Rod Losberger's crew won its fifth game of the year. Westmoor drew first blood when Steve Gilmore, who had a great defensive day to boot, tripled off the outfield wall at Marchbank and scored when the relay to the plate was bobbled.

Oceana tied it at 1-all in the fourth when Dennis Souza singled, stole second and scored on Rich Adkinson's single.

Sportsmen Take Lead Neighborhood Olympic Track Meet in S.S.F.

The second annual Neighborhood Olympics Track Meet sponsored by the South San Francisco Recreation and Parks Department is slated for May 17 at South City High School Track (Clifford Field).

All boys and girls and teenagers, eight to 18 years old, are eligible to compete within four age groupings.

The younger boys and girls, aged eight through 13, will compete in the morning from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in seven events ranging from the 25-yard dash to the softball throw. No track shoes are permitted in the younger categories, however, tennis or gym shoes are recommended.

The teenaged boys and girls, aged 14-18, will then run in the afternoon from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. in most of the standard distances and field events: 100, 220, 440, 880, long jump, high jump, short put, discus and the mile for 17 and 18 year olds. Spikes will be allowed, however, 15 years are reminded that no school uniforms can be worn. Boys and girls will be limited to competing in two field events and two track events each and must compete within their own age group. Awards will be first, second and third place ribbons.

The coordinator for this year's Neighborhood Olympics will be Jim Stireman.

Boys and girls interested in participating in this City-wide event should report to South City High School track on Saturday, May 17. There is no entry fee and no prior registration is required. For any further information, contact the South San Francisco Recreation and Park Department.

BOB MURRAY and Jeff Leonoudakis will be among Neighborhood Olympics track meeting South San Francisco. With starting gun is track meet director Jim Stireman.

June Seventh Registration

Summer registration for Pacifica baseball, swimming, pre-school, teens and J-Teens will be held at 9 a.m., June 7, in the Sharp Park School cafeteria.

Registration will not be on May 16, as previously indicated, Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation Department officials announced this week.

Serra Bowler Sets a Record

Vesma Grinfelds, 18-year-old San Franciscan, dominated the action in the opening of the 10th annual Nor Cal BPA Junior Championships at Sunnyvale Bowl by scoring 661 in singles, 636 in doubles and 613 in team play for a scratch all-events record of 1926.

Miss Grinfelds was not alone in the record setting, however. Hector Valenzuela and Don Klein, representing Serra Bowl, Colma, established a new all-time high for Major Boys scratch doubles with 1384 on Valenzuela's 640 and Klein's 694.

Soap Collected At Serramonte

Serramonte High School freshmen defeated the sophomores in a just-concluded soap-collection contest on the Daly City campus.

The soap was donated to the Golden Gate Chapter of the American Red Cross.

shortstop in the second. Krileich struck out two and walked one and got excellent defensive support as the Mustangs authored 20 put outs and 11 assists.

George Gladius collected two hits, one a ground rule double which produced a run on Krileich's single.

Scott Morrison was the only Matean to solve Krileich. He collected two singles. But it wasn't enough to prevent Willie Elmore from absorbing the Bearcats sixth loss in seven games. Elmore pitched well enough to win, yielding only two singles and a double while whiffing six and walking two.

Burlingame remained one game off the pace as Greg Pearl and Stan Jackson combined for a three-hitter. The Panthers got all their runs in the sixth inning when they knocked starter Abe Shaffer out of the box after he had allowed five runs on three hits.

Skip Conley doubled home two runs in the frame. Steve Lucchesi and Tony Gulla helped stir the rally with singles. Three errors, a walk and a wild pitch contributed to the fireworks.

Pearl got excellent relief work from Stan Jackson who came into the game in the sixth with a runner on first. He retired six hitters in the row, fanning one and walking none. Pearl gave up three hits, walking two and striking out one.
